A dream finally realized

Members of Jackson Township's recreation board gathered at the recreation park behind the municipal building to check out the beginning of earth moving operations to level four acres for a regulation soccer practice field. The 20-acre site was purchased in 1987 with a federal matching grant. The board expects the practice field to be ready by the spring. Inspecting the site were supervisor Andy Kasko and road foreman Rich Manta on the bulldozer and recreation board members Frank Poplaski, Karen Whipple, Mike Tribendis and Gary Miller.

Methodist Women to meet

The United Methodist Women of the Trucksville United Methodist Church will begin the fall schedule with a "Pot Luck" dinner meeting at 6 p.m. on September 12. The executive committee will serve and will supply the dessert. President Bonnie Pajka will preside over the meeting at 7 p.m. Devotions will be led by Kay Palmer. A program, "Four Corners Mission," will be presented by Margaret Johnson. Mrs. Johnson is the Wyoming Conference Mission Coordinator for Christian Global Concerns and has visited the United Methodist Four Corners Mission in Shiprock, Arizona. The Wyoming Conference United Methodist Women's Fall meeting will be held September 30 at the Moscow UMC at 10 a.m.

Michele Maransky passes state nursing board exams

Michele Lynn Maransky, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Maransky of Hunlock Creek, recently passed the state board examinations and has become licensed as a registered nurse.

Miss Maransky is a graduate of Lake-Lehman High School and received a Bachelor of Science degree in nursing from College Misericordia. She has also obtained a specialized certification in perioperative nursing from Luzerne County Community College.

She is employed by Wyoming Valley Health Care Systems. Her plans are to pursue a Masters Degree in nursing.

See the stars in Penn State astronomy workshop

Penn State Wilkes-Barre's popular astronomy workshop will be offered again this fall beginning September 20. The non-credit course will run four weeks on alternate Wednesdays, from 7 to 9 p.m., and will utilize the 14-inch Celestron telescope in the Friedman Observatory on the campus in Lehman.

Enrollment is limited to 16 so that students will have ample opportunity to use the telescopes. No special background is required.

The program will include star locating and identifications; the sun and our solar system; the moon, its surface features and phases; and telescopes and other current topics in astronomy.

Walter Bennett, former superintendent of the famous Mount Wilson Observatory in California, will teach the course. He also designed the new observatory at Williams College, installed its 24-inch telescope, and designed and built an automated system for photographing the solar image.

Bennett is an alumnus of Penn State Wilkes-Barre Campus and of Marlboro College in Vermont.

There is a $55 fee for the course. For more information, call Ina Lubin at Penn State Wilkes-Barre, 675-9251.

Kingston Twp. seeks water commissioners

The Kingston Township Board of Supervisors is seeking township residents interested in serving on the Kingston Township Water Commission.

The Water Commission will meet monthly to discuss ways of improving water service for both the short and long term for Township residents and also act as a liaison between residents, the water companies, and the Board of Supervisors.

Interested residents should send a short letter of interest to: Kingston Township Board of Supervisors, c/o Township Manager Jeffrey Box, 11 Carverton Road, Trucksville, PA 18708.

For more information, call the Township Office at 696-3809.
