

Jackson

of combining his intelligence with a lot of hard work. Over the years he's spent more time practicing throwing the ball than any other part of the game.

Like most high school athletes he can't wait for the season to get started. Once underway, he hopes the season progresses at a snail's pace, so he can savor it all the more. A few extra games in December would be quite nice too.

"I'm looking forward to another winner and another champion," said Jackson. "I got some experience last year, so I won't be as nervous."

Ted was also a major contributor, mostly as a wide receiver, to the Mountaineers in 1993. During his sophomore campaign, Dallas won the Pennsylvania class

AA state championship. It was his favorite moment, thus far as an athlete.

"That was incredible," Jackson said. "I was thrilled just to be a part of that."

A younger brother will soon be making his contributions to the Mountaineers. Matt is on the junior high roster. Ted's mom, Sandy and young sister, Jill are the family's biggest supporters.

Ted is a fan of the Atlanta Falcons and the University of Colorado. Next fall will find Jackson on a college campus, but the site and field of study will be determined over the course of his senior year. Right now, he's getting ready to lead his team to victory in the Wyoming Valley Conference.

Utility requests water conservation

Effective immediately, United Water Pennsylvania-Dallas Operations is strongly urging its customers in Dallas, Noxen, Shavertown and Harveys Lake to discontinue all unnecessary water use.

Unnecessary water use includes car washing, lawn watering, and other outside water use. This restriction will be in affect until further notice.

Lack of rainfall and extreme high temperatures has created excessive water demand on our water sources. We are asking our customers to cooperate with this voluntary restriction on water use.

We apologize for any inconvenience this may create for our customers.

PA GAME COMMISSION NOTES

How do you sedate a large, angry iguana?

While WCO James Jolley was assisting Police Chief Howard Kocher of Lehman Township with a dumping violation, he received a radio call to assist a woman who had a 4' iguana that bit her hand and would not let go. During the 10 minute ride to her house, Jolly and Kocher discussed how they would get the iguana off her hand, deciding on either immersing it in water or spraying it with pepper mace. Fortunately, when they arrived, it had already let go of the woman. The iguana was the woman's pet for four years. Reptiles are probably like wild animals - they do not make very good pets.

POWER POINTS OFFICIAL RULES

- Object of the game is to amass as many of the 136 possible points as you can. Simply review the week's schedule of games, listed on entry form, and decide which game you are surest of picking a winner in. Write the name of your projected winner on the 16-point line. If that team wins its game that week, you win 16 points. Write the name of your second-surest winner on the 15-point line, and so on down to the 1-point line, which game you figure to be a toss-up. Next, fill in Tiebreaker 1, the total points scored by both teams in the week's Eagles or Steelers game. If this step fails to produce a winner, the judges will apply Tiebreaker 2, total offensive yardage from scrimmage in this game. If a winner still doesn't emerge, a drawing will be held among those contestants still tied. Decisions of the judges are final. The weekly winner of the contest will receive $1,000.
- Any entry form that does not contain a legible name, address, etc., will be disqualified.
- Entries that fail to forecast a winner from each and every game will be disqualified, as will entries that fail to distinguish between the Jets and Giants of New York and Pitt and Pittsburgh.
- No points are awarded on tie games or in case any game is not played for any reason during its scheduled week.
- Entering POWER POINTS constitutes permission by contestant for his or her name and photograph to be used for news and reasonable promotional purposes at no charge.
- Employees of this newspaper and their immediate families are ineligible to participate.
- No purchase necessary. Facsimile game entry forms will be accepted and are available at all outlets of participating co-sponsors. Enter contest by dropping entry form into POWER POINTS container at participating co-sponsors.
- Weekly deadline for entry will be 2 p.m. Fridays except when noted otherwise on weekly entry form.
- Neither this newspaper nor any co-sponsor will be responsible for illegible entry forms or those lost, stolen or damaged in any way.
- Limit: one entry per person per week. Each entry must represent the original work of one entrant; "group" entries, "systems" or other attempts to enter multiple entries will be disqualified. Filling out extra forms and putting your friends' and relatives' names on them violates this rule. Any such entries are destroyed prior to grading.
- Contestants must have reached the age of eight (8) years by the Sunday of any week's play.
