Irem Temple will celebrate centennial Sept. 2

Irem Temple A.A.O.N.M.S. is celebrating the 100th anniversary of its charter this year.

Street in Wilkes-Barre is the fraternal home of the nearly 5,000 Shrine Masons from 17 counties in Northeastern Pennsylvania.

This building is of Arabic architecture, with a domed roof and four minarets, and has been a landmark in Wilkes-Barre since its completion in 1908. It is the home for clowns, bands, marching, musical and motorized units which have entertained young and old alike at thousands of area parades. As has been said many times, "The Shrine is a parade in itself".

Irem also brings the annual Shrine Circus to the Kingston Armory every spring, inviting Scouts, church groups and hospital patients to attend free of charge, thanks to the generosity of the "Circus Daddies".
