Tom Paxton to appear at Chicory House

Folk music songwriter and artist Tom Paxton will appear in concert at the Chicory House September 22 at 8 p.m.

Tom Paxton has become the people's voice, addressing issues of injustice and inhumanity; laying bare the absurdities of modern culture and celebrating the most tender bonds of family, friends and community in 35 years of songs destined to last in the oral tradition.

The Chicory House holds its coffeehouse concerts in the Community Room of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, S. Franklin St. in downtown Wilkes-Barre. (The Chicory House is not affiliated with St. Stephen's.) There is parking adjacent and across the street. Doors open at 7:30 p.m.

Paxton has been an integral part of the songwriting and folk music community since the early 60's Greenwich Village scene and continues to be a primary influence on today's "New Folk" generation.

His initial success in Greenwich Village was soon equaled by success in England, the first of many countries to offer a warm welcome to Tom Paxton and his music.

Admission is $7.00 at the door. There are no advanced sales or reserved seats; table and other seating will be on a first-come, first-served basis. Desserts and beverages will be available for purchase.

For more information, phone 825-8772.

Tom Paxton, popular folk song writer and singer, will appear at the Chicory House Sept. 22.
