

Burnaford wins Power Points

Brad Burnaford of Idlewood Drive in Dallas was the local winner in the fourth week of the Power Points football contest. Burnaford's 110 points was highest among all local entries in the statewide competition.

Also a winner last year, Burnaford will receive $25 cash from The Dallas Post and a free month of HBO from Tele-Media, the contest co-sponsor.

The statewide winner, with a

128 point score was Sara Loftus, a 73-year-old grandmother from Watsontown. The statewide top prize is $1,000 cash.

The Power Points contest will run until the end of the NFL regular season. Entries must be deposited by 2 p.m. Fridays at either the office of The Dallas Post at 45 Main Road in Dallas, or Tele-Media on the Harveys Lake Highway. There is an after-hours drop box at the front of The Post's building.

Tomaine

with senior steering and a member of the National Honor Society.

"She's number one or two in her class," Moran said. "She's an excellent academic student. Right now she's looking at a premedical program and she can definitely play field hockey in college."

The daughter of John and Arlene Tomaine of Shavertown has been exploring the possibility of starting her college education close to home. Lisa is very interested in the medical school at Wilkes University, but no definite plans have been made.

She has an older brother, Michael.

The main goal for Tomaine and teammates is to continue to improve on the field during the league season, then worry about playing well into the post season. Tomaine and the Dallas defense have already notched six shutouts this season, and allowed only one goal.

"She hasn't gotten a lot of chances early," Moran said. "Based on last year's performance I know she'll do well in the big games. She's very smart and communicates well with the defensive people."

Tomaine has the upmost respect for every team she lines up against, but had to admit that Tunkhannock and Crestwood are tops in the scoring department.

This is her fourth season as a member of the varsity team. A lot has happened on the field for Tomaine since she first accepted the mask and protective equipment in seventh grade, but she still gets a little nervous.

"I get nervous just about anytime," said Tomaine. "In the close games I keep thinking, oh dear, I better stop it. Ever since I've started I've liked the position. It's the last line of defense; it's up to you and it's intense."

Jr. Football

In the second quarter, Mike Racoski first intercepted a pass giving Dallas a first and 10. Jeff Emanuel ran well to keep Dallas in control of the ball. Michael Smith made a touchdown. Defensemen Chris Carr, David Perschau and Joe Austin held the Sailors from scoring any points ending the first half Dallas 20 - Swyersville 0.

In the beginning of the third quarter Jimmy Jordan received the kickoff on the 40 yard line and ran it all the way for a touchdown. At the end of play the score was Dallas 26 - Swyersville 6.

Dallas A Team did not play, due to Swyersville not fielding an A-Team.

Next game is away, October 1 against Larksville Greenwaves.

Lake-Lehman Jr. Knights

The Lake-Lehman Jr. Knights took two wins out of three September 24 over the Edardsville Eagles at Edwardsville.

The C Team held the Eagles for four downs start the game. Ryan Besteder ran in the only touchdown in the game for the Knights, with a flag on the play for the extra point. The extra point was retried, but unsuccessful.

Scott Wentzel and Dave Gronski did a fine job tackling in the third quarter. With two minutes left in the game, Josh Cragle made a first down for the Knights, as did Ryan Besteder and Matt Kosloski. With only 13 yards to the goal, time ran out leaving the score at Knights 6 - Eagles 0.

The B Squad cheerleaders showed their routine for a pre-game show for the team. The B Team game started with Zach Ragukas receiving. Galen Waltman, Josh Marth and Chris Teetsel all made good yardage, with Josh Marth scoring the first Knight touchdown. Ragukas received the ball on the kick, with Josh Marth making a first down, and Aaron Kubasik making good yardage. Aaron Kubasik scored for the Knights with no extra points.

Zach Ragukas scored a third touchdown for the Knights with Chris Teetsel bringing in the two extra points.

In the third quarter Chris Teetsel made another touchdown and also brought in the extra points. In the fourth quarter, the Eagles fumbled the ball with the Knights scoring their fifth and final touchdown by Josh Marth. Kenny Butler did a terrific job intercepting the ball from the Eagles on their third attempt to make a pass. The final score of the B Team game was Knights 36 - Eagles 8.

The A Team game was very tense, as the teams were equally matched. The Eagles made a touchdown in the first quarter. The second quarter was played with Warren Vogel, Daniel Harris, Jesse Bixby, and Douglas Johnstone making tackles. With less than one minute left in the quarter, Warren Vogel scored a Knight touchdown.

The fourth quarter was a stalemate with no one really gaining any yardage. The Eagles ran in a touchdown with extra points. Daniel Harris made an excellent attempt to get the Knights the yardage they needed with the help of Warren Vogel. The final score for the A-Team was Eagles 14 - Knights 6.

Raitter runs in collegiate championships

Senior Bill Raitter of Lehman, a Lake-Lehman graduate, placed 14th individually as the Western Michigan University men's cross country team took fourth place honors at the 1995 Central Collegiate Conference championships Sept. 23 in Peoria, Ill. Raitter had an 8,000 meter time of 25:25.

Giants win playoff after tie in season

The Back Mountain National League "Giants" recently captured first place in their playoff division, and tied for first place in the regular season. Team members are: Jimmy Belles, J.B. Bucha, Matt Carey, Justin DiGiuseppe, Kevin Domzalski, Mike Domzalski, Matt Eyt, Jared Karalunas, Tyler Karalunas, Danny Mulhern, Charlie Stajewski and Erik Walasek. Manager is Russ Eyt. Coaches are John Bucha and Dave Domzalski. Assistant coaches are: Jim Belles and Jim Carey.

Ramblin'

Lake-Lehman quarterback John Oliver ran past the Hanover defense in last Friday's 22-0 win at Hanover. Mike Adamshick (46) followed the play. The Knights ran for over 200 yards and held the Hawks to 50. Mike Pitcavage scored twice and Adamshick once, with Oliver adding a field goal. Lehman now holds a 3-1 overall record for the season and is 1-1 in conference play. They will host GAR Saturday.

POWER POINTS OFFICIAL RULES

- Object of the game is to amass as many of the 136 possible points as you can. Simply review the week's schedule of games, listed on entry form, and decide which game you are surest of picking a winner in. Write the name of your projected winner on the 16-point line. If that team wins its game that week, you win 16 points. Write the name of your second-surest winner on the 15-point line, and so on down to the 1-point line, which game you figure to be a toss-up. Next, fill in Tiebreaker 1, the total points scored by both teams in the week's Eagles or Steelers game. If this step fails to produce a winner, the judges will apply Tiebreaker 2, total offensive yardage from scrimmage in this game. If a winner still doesn't emerge, a drawing will be held among those contestants still tied. Decisions of the judges are final. The weekly winner of the contest will receive $1,000.
- Any entry form that does not contain a legible name, address, etc., will be disqualified.
- Entries that fail to forecast a winner from each and every game will be disqualified, as will entries that fail to distinguish between the Jets and Giants of New York and Pitt and Pittsburgh.
- No points are awarded on tie games or in case any game is not played for any reason during its scheduled week.
- Entering POWER POINTS constitutes permission by contestant for his or her name and photograph to be used for news and reasonable promotional purposes at no charge.
- Employees of this newspaper and their immediate families are ineligible to participate.
- No purchase necessary. Facsimile game entry forms will be accepted and are available at all outlets of participating co-sponsors. Enter contest by dropping entry form into POWER POINTS container at participating co-sponsors.
- Weekly deadline for entry will be 2 p.m. Fridays except when noted otherwise on weekly entry form.
- Neither this newspaper nor any co-sponsor will be responsible for illegible entry forms or those lost, stolen or damaged in any way.
- Limit: one entry per person per week. Each entry must represent the original work of one entrant. "Group" entries, "systems" or other attempts to enter multiple entries will be disqualified. Filing out extra forms and putting your friends' and relatives' names on them violates this rule. Any such entries are destroyed prior to grading.
- Contestants must have reached the age of eight (8) years by the Sunday of any week's play.
