Near or far, planning improves a honeymoon

Affectionately known as "The Honeymoon Capital of the World," the Poconos offer a year-round playground designed by Mother Nature, including 150 lakes, 35 golf courses, 13 downhill ski runs and hundreds of trails for hiking or cross-country skiing.

Most of the resorts in the Poconos cater to newlyweds, which means you'll be treated to champagne breakfast in bed, a private sauna, sunken whirlpool bath, an intimate balcony built for two, a glass-enclosed heart-shape pool and many other couple-oriented amenities.

For those who venture beyond their room, the Poconos boast of an active night life, complete with clubs, discos and top-name entertainers.

But choosing the destination is just half the battle. What follows is a list of some of the most common mistakes honeymooners make:

Top honeymoon destinations

Honeymoon travel generates $4.5 billion. These are the most popular locations:

Destination	No. of Travelers
U.S. mainland	635,000
Caribbean	400,000
Hawaii	217,000
Mexico	143,000
Canada	104,000
Europe	89,000

• Making a plane reservation for an early flight the morning after the wedding. If you're planning an evening wedding, chances are you won't get to bed until late. Rather than start your honeymoon in a rush, book your flight for the early afternoon so that you are able to enjoy your morning in leisurely fashion.

• Thinking you have to spend every minute together. It's a good idea to spend a little time apart on your honeymoon so that you don't get on each other's nerves. You'll both be happier if you plan to do a couple of activities on your own.

The workshop was designed because so many Brides have no idea what to do first, who to book, who to see or how to register. Most girls who get engaged are so excited they usually get talked into a "good deal", that's not such a good deal as their wedding day draws near. The workshop will cover the Brides' dress, headpiece, accessories, undergarments, shoes, maid's dresses, prices, alterations, custom dresses, china patterns, crystal, music, make-up, photography, wedding music, gifts for your wedding party, invitations, wedding rings, wedding day breakfast, furniture, shower favors, wedding cake designs, and yes, even pre-nuptial agreements!!

All to help your day be the best it can. If you have questions, we have answer. Seating is limited. Tickets are $2.50 in advance and $3.00 at the door. For early registration fill out the coupon.
