

Knights

Debbie White scored on a penalty shot at 17:08. Jen Johnstone made it 5-0 after putting in a pass from Kacy Ziomek at 10:54. Junior Christina Farrell closed out the scoring with an unassisted goal with 9:13 remaining.

Senior goalie Jonelle Elgaway turned in another superb performance in the net. The Lady Knights didn't lose much when fellow senior Pam Rish took over the goal with 9:12 remaining. Rish posted a 0.82 goals-against average while filling in for the injured Elgaway a season ago. The duo combined for five saves during the win over the Spartans.

Twenty-one different Lehman players saw action in Monday's contest. Lipski was elated to provide some varsity experience for a number of the younger players and move some other girls around on the field.

"Next year that will mean a lot," Lipski said.

The veteran coach would love to draw an analogy between Monday's win and the way she'd like to see the season pan out. Start out slow, wear down the opponent and turn up the heat at the end.

The Lehman coaching staff is bewildered, but the Lady Knights often start the season strong, but let down and lose momentum near the end.

"I hope that doesn't happen this year," Lipski said. "This is a young team, they're really working and staying focused at practice. Instead of declining that's going to make us better and better." With a 6-2 record, the Knights are in excellent position to earn a playoff spot.

Monday's contest was the first of four this week. If the Lady Knights can make it a clean sweep they may find themselves at or near the top of the AA standings by the weekend. The other clubs in their division have some rough games ahead of them this week.

Lehman plays Honesdale at home Wednesday and Abington Heights on the road Friday.

possession and ran a touchdown plus extra points. Chad Cragle ran 55 yards for a Knights touchdown. Scott Wentzel, Bill Volkel, Eric Gronski and David Gronski all played tough defense. The final score was Huskies 28 - Knights 22.

The B-Team started with Gaise Lacek receiving the kick and making yardage for the Knights, and Galen Waltman was quick to run in a touchdown with Chris Teetsel bringing in the extra points. The Huskies were playing with only 10 players. Waltman, Chris Teetsel, Lacek and David Strenfel all played strong defense. Zach Ragukas intercepted the ball from the Huskies and Aaron Kubasik ran for yardage. Jeff Taylor made a good catch on a pass, and Chris Teetsel made the Knights second touchdown with Ragukas scoring the extra points.

The second quarter started with a Kingston player hurt on the field. He was taken from the field in an ambulance, leaving the Huskies with only nine players. The Huskies then scored their one and only touchdown. With only two minutes left in the quarter, Zach Ragukas ran a touchdown for the Knights and David Harris scored the extra points. Chris Teetsel kicked, and tackled the kicker, with Kenny Butler and Douglas Johnstone also making successful tackles.

In the fourth quarter the Huskies fumbled and Douglas Johnstone recovered. Galen Waltman made a touchdown with Jeff Taylor scoring the extra points. The final score for the B-Team was Knights 32 - Huskies 6.

The A-Team game started with David DeLong making the kick.

Jesse Bixby, Jonathan Bird and Warren Vogel made good tackles. Vogel made a first down, and Daniel Harris and Harold Newell made yardage with Vogel going in for a touchdown and Daniel Harris making the extra points. Vogel then ran an 80-yard touchdown with Joey Shurmaitis bringing in the extra points. Shurmaitis intercepted a pass and ran for a touchdown.

There was no score in the third quarter. The fourth quarter the Huskies made a touchdown with R. J. Krum stopping the extra point try. Harold Newell, Joey Shurmaitis, Daniel Harris and Warren Vogel all made yardage in the fourth, with Daniel Harris and R. J. Krum blocking the extra points after the Huskies second touchdown. The A-Team final score was Knights 22 - Huskies 12.

Raiders

Brokenshire shared the rewards of a safety and two points, which later was to be the amount needed for victory. Playing well for the Raider defense was Matthew Kelly, Jonathan Baker and Kenny Regan. A last minute effort put on by the Swoyersville team was halted on the one yard line by a Raider defense with the desire to win. The C-Team cheerleaders did a great job entertaining the crowd with their halftime routine.

The Raiders A-Team's record jumped to 4-1 because of the fact that Swoyersville did not field an A-Team this year.

Next week's game will be against the Greenwave of Larksville at their field.

POWER POINTS OFFICIAL RULES

- Object of the game is to amass as many of the 136 possible points as you can. Simply review the week's schedule of games, listed on entry form, and decide which game you are surest of picking a winner in. Write the name of your projected winner on the 16-point line. If that team wins its game that week, you win 16 points. Write the name of your second-surest winner on the 15-point line, and so on down to the 1-point line, which game you figure to be a toss-up. Next, fill in Tiebreaker 1, the total points scored by both teams in the week's Eagles or Steelers game. If this step fails to produce a winner, the judges will apply Tiebreaker 2, total offensive yardage from scrimmage in this game. If a winner still doesn't emerge, a drawing will be held among those contestants still tied. Decisions of the judges are final. The weekly winner of the contest will receive $1,000.
- Any entry form that does not contain a legible name, address, etc., will be disqualified.
- Entries that fail to forecast a winner from each and every game will be disqualified, as will entries that fail to distinguish between the Jets and Giants of New York and Pitt and Pittsburgh.
- No points are awarded on tie games or in case any game is not played for any reason during its scheduled week.
- Entering POWER POINTS constitutes permission by contestant for his or her name and photograph to be used for news and reasonable promotional purposes at no charge.
- Employees of this newspaper and their immediate families are ineligible to participate.
- No purchase necessary. Facsimile game entry forms will be accepted and are available at all outlets of participating co-sponsors. Enter contest by dropping entry form into POWER POINTS container at participating co-sponsors.
- Weekly deadline for entry will be 2 p.m. Fridays except when noted otherwise on weekly entry form.
- Neither this newspaper nor any co-sponsor will be responsible for illegible entry forms or those lost, stolen or damaged in any way.
- Limit: one entry per person per week. Each entry must represent the original work of one entrant; "group" entries, "systems" or other attempts to enter multiple entries will be disqualified. Filing out extra forms and putting your friends' and relatives' names on them violates this rule. Any such entries are destroyed prior to grading.
- Contestants must have reached the age of eight (8) years by the Sunday of any week's play.
