

Lehman United Methodist youth to host Haunted Barn

The Lehman United Methodist Youth Fellowship Group will host its annual Haunted Barn this Halloween season to help area sick children.

In 1985 the group established the Wyoming Valley Children's Aid Fund to assist local students who were terminally or critically ill. Since 1985, the youth group has donated more than $6,500 to needy children and children's assistance organizations in the area. Grants are given to families based on need and after review by the Children's Aid Fund Committee.

The Wyoming Valley Children's Aid Fund is solely funded by the efforts of the Lehman U.M.Y.F. The youth have consistently pledged 30% of their profits from their annual Haunted Barn for the fund and asked that people of the area support them in their efforts to continue financing the Children's Aid Fund.

The Haunted Barn is open on October 13-14, 19-22, and 26-30 from 7 p.m.-10 p.m. Thursdays and Sundays and 7 p.m.-11 p.m. on Fridays and Saturdays. Your $4.00 admission benefits the Lehman U.M.Y.F., the Lehman Volunteer Fire Co., Lehman Area Girl Scouts, The Lake-Lehman Chorus and the Wyoming Valley Children's Aid Fund.

For more information about the Children's Aid Fund call 675-2985 or write to: Wyoming Valley Children's Aid Fund, P.O. Box 71, Lehman, PA 18627.

Call the Spook Line: 675-1216 during the month of October for some great Ghost Stories and updates about the Haunted Barn.

Post 572 to install officers

Daddow-Isaac Post 672, the American Legion, will hold installation of officers October 13, at the post home at 8 p.m.

12th District Commander, James Wildoner will install the new officers. Jack Joseph will be in charge of the 12th District Drill Team.

New officers to be installed are John J. Charney, commander; Walter I. Galka, senior vice commander; Chester W. Kunigonis, junior vice commander; Tom Reese, adjutant; Edward Buckley, treasurer; Charles Glasser, chaplain; Harold Brobst, historian; John George, service officer; Charles D. Lemmond, Jr., judge advocate; sergeants at arms, William Bell and John M. Tasco.

Refreshments will be served by the auxiliary.

Inmates contribute to food program

The Luzerne County Food and Facts program recently received a check for $1,000 from the Bread for the World Chapter at the State Correctional Institute in Dallas (SCID).

Members of the SCID chapter solicited donations from their mates and held a Bread for the World Walk late in April.

The Luzerne County Food and Facts program is a local version of a nationwide program known as Super cupboard. The program provides food relief with a series of classes in basic living skills in order to help participants develop independence and self-esteem.

For more information or to register for the next Food and Facts program call Penn State Cooperative Extension at 825-1701 or Rick Kutz at the Commission on Economic Opportunity at 826-0510.
