

JUNIOR FOOTBALL

Dallas Junior Mountaineers

The Dallas Jr. Mountaineers played the Edwardsville Eagles Oct. 8. In the first quarter of the C-Team game Adam Schoonover caught the punt return and ran it in for a touchdown. At the end of the first quarter it was Dallas 6 - Edwardsville 0.

The Dallas defense was outstanding in the second half of the game. Kyle Zapoticky, Nick Varela, Alan Pugh, Martin Moore played well, just to name a few, and Doug Harris ran to keep us in first downs. Adam Schoonover made another touchdown in the fourth quarter ending the game Dallas Jr. Mountaineers 12 - Eagles 5.

In the B-Team's first quarter, Dallas defensemen Jeffrey Singer, Eric Klein, Michael Evans and James Holdredge held the Eagle's from making a first down. Chris Hayes received the punt return and ran it for a first down, Mike Racoski received a handoff and ran a first down and Ryan Gryskevich ran it in for a touchdown. The ball went back to the Eagles but not for long thanks to John Walters' fumble recovery. End of the first quarter Dallas 6 - Edwardsville 6.

In the last half of the game Edwardsville showed what they had and the end result was Dallas Jr. Mountaineers 6 - Edwardsville Eagles 30.

The Dallas A-Team had a great defensive game. They held Edwardsville to two touchdowns and one two-point conversion. Dave Werts, Bruce Pitts, Chuck Yurkon, Shane Schoonover, and Joe Saraka had some great tackles. Joe Rogers and Bruce Pitts each received fumbles. Jeff Mattie and Randy Schoonover each made sacks. Fred Krispen got an interception. Billy Miller knocked away a pass that Joe Saraka caught to keep Edwardsville from getting a two point conversion. Dallas 0 - Edwardsville 14.

Next game is October 15 against Pittston, at the Dallas Senior High School. The community is invited to attend.

Oct. 1 results

The Dallas Jr. Mountaineers faced off with Larksville Greenwave, Oct 1. In the C-Team game Dallas offense, defense and special teams fought a good game but couldn't come up with any points. Game results were Dallas Jr. Mountaineers 0 - Larksville Greenwaves 14.

In the B-Team game, Mike Racoski, Ryan Gryskevich, Mike Smith and Jimmy Jordan gained yards and made great passes but by the end of the first half the score was Dallas 0 - Larksville 14.

In the second half Billy and Richie Adams tried to hold back the Greenwaves but they were unstoppable. The end result was Dallas Jr. Mountaineers 0 Larksville Greenwaves 36.

In the A-Team game the defense of Joe Saraka, Shane Schoonover, Chuck Yurkon, Fred Krispin and Jake Walters made some great tackles. Joe Saraka made a touchdown but it wasn't enough. The game ended Dallas Jr. Mountaineers 6 - Larksville Greenwaves 22.

Also a note of appreciation to the Dallas Jr. Football cheerleaders.

scored two more touchdowns. Doug Zaruta played an outstanding defensive game, as quarterback and also received several receptions. Brian Ostrowski also did a fine job as quarterback. Nick Onzik did a good job on defense during the game. Matt Kelly recovered a fumble that led to a touchdown but unfortunately it was called back on a penalty.

The Raiders B-Team tied with an unbeaten Larksville Greenwave team by a final score of 14-14. Touchdowns were scored by Paul Saxon and Luke Miller. The caliber of the game was equal to that of a Super Bowl as both teams fought with their hearts as well as physically. Both teams refused to quit as was evident in the fact that when a touchdown was made, the other team answered their call with a score of their own.

Homecoming will be held this Sunday at the Dallas High School field. The 1995 graduates and their parents will be honored at the beginning of the A game. Everyone is invited to attend.

Lake-Lehman Junior Knights

The Knights hosted Swyersville Sunday, Oct. 8. Swyersville does not have an A-Team and their B-Team forfeited. C-Team was the only game played today.

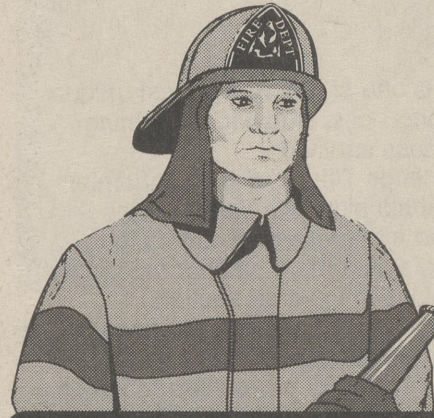

The Sailors kicked off with the Knights' Matt Kosloski receiving, David Gronski, Matt Kosloski and Ryan Besteder all had a carry, with Ryan making the Knights first down. Gronski scored an early touchdown with Kosloski bringing in the extra points. After Gronski kicked to the Sailors, Bill Volkel, Josh Cragle, Chad Casterline, Eric Gronski, Garrett Engle, Ronnie Ritts and Joshua Setzer all made successful tackles in the first quarter.

David Gronski ran in the Knights next touchdown with Kosloski scoring the extra points

The third quarter started with David Gronski kicking to the Sailors, and Joshua Setzer and Ronnie Ritts making the tackle. In the fourth quarter Ryan Besteder had an excellent run bringing the Knights a first down, with Josh and Chad Cragle making yardage also. The final score was Knights 16 - Sailors 0.

See you all next week October 15 when the Knights travel to play Wilkes-Barre.

PRACTICE PREVENTION

STOP FIRES BEFORE THEY START

Most fires are preventable. By following the tips below, you can help make sure your home is fire-safe, and help ensure your safety if a fire does occur.

1. Never leave your stove unattended while cooking.
2. Keep curtains, dish towels, potholders and other combustibles away from the stove.
3. Have your furnace checked by a reputable service company at least once a year.
4. If you have a fireplace, have it cleaned every year. Use a firescreen to prevent sparks from flying.
5. Check cords and plugs frequently for signs of broken insulation or frayed wires.
6. Buy appliances having approval of Underwriters Laboratories or another nationally recognized testing laboratory.
7. Teach children to not play with matches or cigarette lighters.
8. Install at least one smoke detector on every floor of the home.
9. Keep a fire extinguisher in the home and one in the car.
10. Have an escape route and alternate route planned in advance in case of fire, and designate a safe meeting place for family members once outside.

Kingston Township Raiders

The Kingston Township Raiders A-Team defeated the Larksville Greenwave with a score of 12-6, Oct. 8. On the offense, Jeff Parrish scored on a run and Randy Knappman scored six on a pass from Jeff Zaruta. On the offensive line, Mike Senausky, Joe Latosek, Scott Miller, Andy Ruddy and Jonathan Lora played a great game. Mike Sabol ran the ball for over 100 yards to help the team with its win. Defensively, Parrish, Brian Veters, David Hopersberger, Ruddy, Latosek and Zaruta held the Larksville team to just one score. The defense was stingy, allowing only the second touchdown of the season to be scored. The Raiders A team has the best defensive record in the Greater Pittston Junior Football league.

The Raiders C-Team lost to Larksville by a score of 20-0. The Raiders held the Greenwave to just six points until the end of the fourth quarter when Larksville
