ON CAMPUS

PSU Alumni fundraiser

Members of the Penn State Wilkes-Barre Campus Alumni Constituent Society have embarked on a special fundraiser for the Society's Endowed Scholarship Fund. Proceeds of the project will go toward scholarships for outstanding students planning to enroll full-time at the local Penn State Campus who have a proven need for funds to meet their college expenses.

Rick Pietracchini, vice president of the Wilkes-Barre Campus Alumni Constituent Society, has announced that 10 prizes will be awarded; nine are Penn State items, such as wine glasses, umbrella, hat, beach towel, and golf club covers and the top prize is a round-trip for two to the David Letterman Late Show in New York on Friday, Oct. 27. This will include tickets, a limo ride and $150 cash.

Tickets are available at Penn State Wilkes-Barre's development office, at the Four Seasons Golf Club in Exeter, The Sports Store in Clark Summit, or through any alumni board member. Drawing will be held Wednesday, Oct. 25. For more information, call the development office at 675-9228.

King's open house Nov. 5

High students and their families are invited to the King's College campus November 5, 9 a.m. until 1:45 p.m. to explore the college and various courses of study.

Faculty from 35 major programs will be present to help students learn more about the options available to them in The William G. McGowan School of Business and The College of Arts and Sciences.

Students can set up individual interviews with admissions counselors and discuss financial aid; attend a career planning presentation; learn about internships, the Honors program and programs for undecided majors. They also can meet with the coaching staffs of King's 18 intercollegiate sports for men and women; and take a tour of the campus.

For more information or reservations, call the King's College admissions office at 826-5858 or 800-955-5777.

Dallas H.S. 1995 yearbooks are in

The 1995 Dallas yearbooks are available to those students who placed orders earlier this year.

Alumni may pick up their yearbooks from 9 a.m.-3 p.m. daily in the senior high school main office. Receipts are helpful, but not necessary.

A limited number of extra copies are also available on a first-come, first-served basis for those who did not order earlier. These extra copies go quickly and alumni are encouraged to visit the school as soon as possible. Payment is due in full upon receipt of the book.
