PRETTIEST - Tricia Sprague, Shavertown.

FUNNIEST - Douglas Harding, Dallas. Sunday was his birthday, too.

MOST ORIGINAL - Jessica Schrader, Trucksville.

UGLIEST - Michael Ell, Centermoreland.

Sem to present service award to alumna Agnes Gregson

Dallas resident Agnes Gregson is one of four former trustees of Wyoming Seminary, who will receive the school's highest honor - the Distinguished Service Award in ceremonies November 10.

A 1935 graduate of Wyoming Seminary, Gregson is a Dallas native and a graduate of Skidmore College. One of Seminary's most loyal and active alumnae, she has served as president of the Alumni Association and is currently a member of its Alumni Council.

A Seminary trustee from 1974 to 1977, she received the schools' Outstanding Alumni Award in 1983 and was named to Seminary's Sports Hall of Fame in 1975.

Her work as a travel agent is well-known to Wyoming Valley residents. Beginning her career with Miners National Bank of Wilkes-Barre, she joined the First Eastern Bank travel department in 1965 and in 1979 the Valley Automobile Club, she she still works today.

She is a member of the board of the SPCA of Luzerne County and a committee member with the Wyoming Historical and Geological Society.

Other Distinguished Service Award recipients are Bishop James M. Ault of Fogelsville; Frederick D. Sarkis of Merritt Island, FL and Dr. Edward Shafer of Kingston.
