

Chris Nattress shows off his winning form during a race.

Chris Nattress places 9th in PA

Shavertown resident Chris Nattress raced Coca-Cola Jr. NASTAR (National Standard Race) during the 1994-95 season and placed ninth among all of Pennsylvania's 13-15 year old boys, making him one of the fastest ski racers in the state.

Nattress was ranked against U.S. Ski Team member and 1994 Olympic gold medalist, Tommy Moe, along with approximately 110,000 other recreational ski racers participating.

NASTAR racers are timed on a modified slalom course and given a score or "handicap," which allows them to compare themselves to other NASTAR racers across the U.S. and to earn bronze, silver or gold medals every day they race.

Nattress earned a season best handicap of 17 while skiing at Montage Ski Area, coming in 17 percent behind NASTAR national Pacesetter, Tommy Moe, who held NASTAR's best handicap, a zero, during the 1994-95 ski season.

Dallas

Kvashay says his girls' teams of recent years became determined to start a legacy of their own after taking a long look at the success of the Dallas boys' cross-country and track and field teams. The district championship is extra special for this program when you consider the larger number of female participants other schools attract.

Dallas's John Crispell finished 43rd among the states AA boys with a time of 17:12. The hard working senior finished the regular season undefeated and was running first in the coaches meet at Kirby Park, but was unable to finish that race because of an illness. In October he finished fourth at districts with an identical 17:12.

"John ran his best times early in the year," Kvashay explained. "He didn't really have time to rebound from the illness, but he was running to the max on Saturday."

Ryan Bombick kept his eye on the ball during last week's district soccer title match. Lake-Lehman won 4-3 over Meyers.

- Object of the game is to amass as many of the 136 possible points as you can. Simply review the week's schedule of games, listed on entry form, and decide which game you are surest of picking a winner in. Write the name of your projected winner on the 16-point line. If that team wins its game that week, you win 16 points. Write the name of your second-surest winner on the 15-point line, and so on down to the 1-point line, which game you figure to be a toss-up. Next, fill in Tiebreaker 1, the total points scored by both teams in the week's Eagles or Steelers game. If this step fails to produce a winner, the judges will apply Tiebreaker 2, total offensive yardage from scrimmage in this game. If a winner still doesn't emerge, a drawing will be held among those contestants still tied. Decisions of the judges are final. The weekly winner of the contest will receive $1,000.
- Any entry form that does not contain a legible name, address, etc., will be disqualified.
- Entries that fail to forecast a winner from each and every game will be disqualified, as will entries that fail to distinguish between the Jets and Giants of New York and Pitt and Pittsburgh.

- Entering POWER POINTS constitutes permission by contestant for his or her name and photograph to be used for news and reasonable promotional purposes at no charge.
