

Knights

Joe Spencer got the call on the sixth play. The fullback ran between his left guard and tackle and took the ball in untouched. The extra point was good and Wyoming led 7-0 with nine minutes remaining in the half.

Both coaches knew the winning team would more than likely make the fewest mistakes. Costly mistakes that is. The Black Knights were penalized just once for six yards, Wyoming three times for 25 yards. Neither quarterback was intercepted. Wyoming only coughed up the ball once, but Lehman fumbled twice including a critical non-exchange with 1:34 remaining.

With 7:26 left in the contest a determined Lehman squad took over on their own 18-yard line. On first down John Oliver passed to wide receiver Chris Bath for a 14 yard gain. Lehman was in business. In 14 plays the Knights worked the clock and took the ball all the way down inside the four-yard line. On the 15th play, second and goal, it happened. Or make that didn't happen. Tailback Mike Pitcavage never got control of Oliver's handoff which was recovered by Wyoming.

"It was just an off tackle play," Gorgone said. "I thought we had it pretty well sealed."

Each team only had the ball two times in the second half. Wyoming put together a couple of time consuming drives in which they dominated play at the line of scrimmage. The Warrior backs continuously rumbled into the secondary as safety Mike Woronko made the majority of tackles in the second half.

"We were just trying to slow them down," said Gorgone. "That's their game. They have three or four big backs that they can just rotate."

Lehman took the ball 53 yards on its only drive of the third quarter, but that too ended with a fumble.

Pitcavage picked up seven yards on first down before Adamshick found a hole up the middle and sprinted for 40 more. Pitcavage went off tackle left for six again, but came down at an angle as he tried changing directions and lost the ball to Wyoming.

"Wyoming made the plays and scored, we didn't," Gorgone said. "We had opportunities."

Lehman also missed a chance to get on the scoreboard just before halftime. Inside linebacker Angelo DeCesaris pounced on a fumble at the Wyoming 36 with 43 seconds remaining. The eight play, 25-yard drive ended with a field goal attempt by Oliver. The senior's attempt at a 28-yarder just missed to the left.

"It looked good from where I was standing," said Gorgone. "I'm very proud of these kids. The seniors had some big wins for us over the years, and we played a lot of underclassmen today. It was just a good bunch of kids that really came together and have a lot to be proud of."

Wyoming will play Dunmore for the District 2 title this Saturday. Lehman finishes at 8-3. Pitcavage finished the game with 94 yards rushing and over 3,000 for his career. Adamshick added 53 yards on eight carries.

board with a 59-yard touchdown run. Just two plays after the ensuing kickoff. The two-point conversion was no good as Scott Townsend stuffed Forgione with help from Lombardo and Joe Noon.

One series later junior defensive halfback Kevin Kozel picked off a Gallagher pass at the 13-yard line. On second down, Jackson displayed his ability to run long as well with a 78-yard touchdown jaunt down the right sideline. Jeff Kunkle added the extra point to put Dallas on top 15-6.

Gallagher added a 25-yard run for Dunmore in the second quarter, but Dallas made another great defensive play on the two-point conversion when Noon sacked the Bucks signal caller for a loss of 11 yards.

Gallagher rushed for 181 yards to lead Dunmore. Valvano, the leading rusher in Division 2 of the Wyoming Valley Conference, finished with 96 yards.

Jackson was 7 of 19 passing with one interception and rushed for 80 yards. Kozel caught three passes for 42 yards.

"I'm very happy with the effort of our kids," Jackson said. "I'm really happy with the way they never quit."

POWER POINTS OFFICIAL RULES

- Object of the game is to amass as many of the 136 possible points as you can. Simply review the week's schedule of games, listed on entry form, and decide which game you are surest of picking a winner in. Write the name of your projected winner on the 16-point line. If that team wins its game that week, you win 16 points. Write the name of your second-surest winner on the 15-point line, and so on down to the 1-point line, which game you figure to be a toss-up. Next, fill in Tiebreaker 1, the total points scored by both teams in the week's Eagles or Steelers game. If this step fails to produce a winner, the judges will apply Tiebreaker 2, total offensive yardage from scrimmage in this game. If a winner still doesn't emerge, a drawing will be held among those contestants still tied. Decisions of the judges are final. The weekly winner of the contest will receive $1,000.
- Any entry form that does not contain a legible name, address, etc., will be disqualified.
- Entries that fail to forecast a winner from each and every game will be disqualified, as will entries that fail to distinguish between the Jets and Giants of New York and Pitt and Pittsburgh.
- No points are awarded on tie games or in case any game is not played for any reason during its scheduled week.
- Entering POWER POINTS constitutes permission by contestant for his or her name and photograph to be used for news and reasonable promotional purposes at no charge.
- Employees of this newspaper and their immediate families are ineligible to participate.
- Anyone can enter, but you must be present Tele-Media customer or start cable service to win this prize.
- No purchase necessary. Facsimile game entry forms will be accepted and are available at all outlets of participating co-sponsors. Enter contest by dropping entry form into POWER POINTS container at participating co-sponsors.
- Weekly deadline for entry will be 2 p.m. Fridays except when noted otherwise on weekly entry form.
- Neither this newspaper nor any co-sponsor will be responsible for illegible entry forms or those lost, stolen or damaged in any way.
- Limit: one entry per person per week. Each entry must represent the original work of one entrant; "group" entries, "systems" or other attempts to enter multiple entries will be disqualified. Filling out extra forms and putting your friends' and relatives' names on them violates this rule. Any such entries are destroyed prior to grading.
- Contestants must have reached the age of eight (8) years by the Sunday of any week's play.
