Don't shovel snow or ice on streets, sidewalks

Kingston Township Police Chief James Balavage would like to remind residents that a township ordinance prohibits the depositing of snow and ice on sidewalks, streets, highways, or adjacent to fire hydrants. The purpose of the ordinance is to insure that the work performed in clearing streets by township road department is not compromised by the illegal depositing of the snow back into the street. Police officers will enforce the provisions of this ordinance.

Living Nativity
December 21 at
Gate of Heaven

DALLAS - As part of its 7 p.m. Advent service December 21, Gate of Heaven Church's Music Ministry will present a special program. Highlighting the service will be a living Nativity scene presented by members of the fourth-grade CCD class taught by Barbara Pitcavage and assistant Mary Jane Kozick. Kara Makarewicz will play Mary, while Matt Tucker will be Joseph. Shepherds will be Joey Wyberski, Frank Buzin Andrew Gjalenalla and Gregory Kostrobala, while angels will be played by Kim Sorber, Amber Kenny and Julie Kapson. Narrators will be CCD sixth-grade class members Bryan Morgan, Crystal Carter and Laura Vodzak. The CCD class's presentation is a family affair - Pitcavage's older daughter, Kathleen, helped her with the students, while youngest daughter, Therese, donated the doll which will play the part of Baby Jesus. Pitcavage's mother, Jane Youngblood, crocheted the blanket used for the swaddling clothes which Baby Jesus wore while He slept in the manger. Father David Cappelloni will play the guitar and sing Talbot's "Magnificat," while the Adult Choir will also sing special selections.
