

Gate of Heaven kindergarten registration January 16-18

Mrs. Mary C. Tigue, principal, announces that registration for kindergarten classes for the 1996-97 school year at Gate of Heaven School will be held in the lobby of the school Jan. 16-18 from 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon.

Eligible students must be five years of age by Sept. 30, 1996 and present proof of all required immunizations. Parents are also asked to bring the child's Social Security number as well as copies of birth and baptismal certificates.

A $100 non-refundable registration fee is required at the time of registration.

Gate of Heaven School is a Catholic school under the auspices of the Diocese of Scranton and offers quality Catholic education for grades K-8 to the children of the Back Mountain and Tunkhannock areas in the parishes of Gate of Heaven, St. Therese's, Our Lady of Victory, St. Francis Cabrini, Blessed Sacrament and Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Parishoners requiring advance registration packets may call the school office at 675-6566.

Financial Aid Nite at Lake Lehman Jan. 11

The Lake-Lehman Guidance Department will hold a Financial Aid Night at the high school January 11, at 7 p.m. in the library. Parents of seniors who are pursuing post-secondary education are encouraged to attend.

Peg Charnick of College Misericordia will discuss specifics in filling out financial aid forms. Federal and state grants and loans will be explained.

Juniors and their parents are also welcome.

King's names Mayton to Dean's List

Dallas resident Danielle Mayton was recently named to the Dean's List at King's College, Wilkes-Barre, for the Fall 1995 semester physician assistant program.

To be named to the Dean's List, students must have a grade point average of 3.4 or higher.

Lehman freshmen in honors band

Four freshman instrumentalists were recently chosen to represent the Lake-Lehman Band at the annual Marywood Junior High Honors Band for Northeastern Pennsylvania.

The two day musical festival was hosted by the music department of Marywood College and directed by William Webber, conductor of the college wind and jazz ensemble.

King's offers Temple graduate programs

Residents of Northeastern Pennsylvania may now take Temple University courses in educational leadership this spring on the King's College campus. The graduate courses lead to a master's or doctor's degree in education, or principal's or superintendent certification.

Representatives from both King's and Temple will hold an Information and Registration Reception January 11, from 4:30-7:30 p.m. to provide information, answer questions, and/or register individuals. It will be held in the Postupak Room of The William C. McGowan School of Business, North River and Union Streets. Individuals unable to attend the information night may register the first night of classes.

Two 3-credit courses offered this spring at King's are Educational Administration 651, "School Plant," held Thursdays from 6 p.m. until 8:40 p.m. beginning January 18, and Educational Administration 715, "Instructional Leadership," Mondays from 6 p.m. until 8:40 p.m. beginning January 22. Spring semester concludes May 7, 1996. Graduate tuition is $807 for a three-credit course.

For more information, call Dr. James Powell, coordinator, Temple University, at (717) 232-6400 or Dr. Elizabeth Lott, director of graduate programs, King's College at 826-5991.
