Claire Hedden named Sem's December student of month

Claire Hedden, a senior at Wyoming Seminary, was named Student of the Month for December by the Kingston Lions Club.

Hedden, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hedden of Dallas, has been named to the Dean's List with high honors.

A field hockey and soccer team member in grades nine through 12, she was named field hockey MVP in her junior year, and is the field hockey co-captain this year.

She was awarded a Levi Sprague Fellowship Scholarship for her senior year, is a member of the AIDS Awareness Group, the Peer Group, the SAVE environmental group, and the Board of Student Appeals.

Hedden also serves as acolyte for St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, and has volunteered through the Teens Do Care nursing home visitation program.

CLAIRE HEDDEN

Hedden is interested in a career in fine arts, concentrating in sculpture and ceramics.

Comedians on stage at Penn State

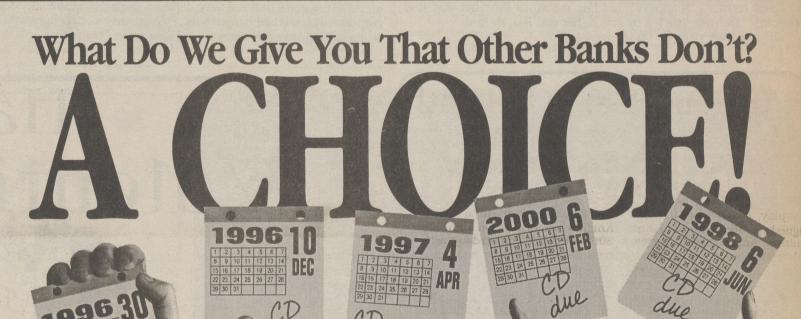

Two stand-up comedians will perform at Penn State Wilkes-Barre's second annual Comedy Night February 8, 8 p.m. on the campus in Lehman. The program will be held in the Student Commons Lounge, and is free and open to the public.

Michael Dean Ester, a native Pennsylvanian, has performed in many of the top-rated comedy clubs in the northeastern United States and Canada. His comedy draws from everyday life, fusing small town enthusiasm with a metropolitan cynicism.

Tony Powell's refreshing, narrative approach to comedy grabs an audience's attention must like his idol, Bill Cosby. His engaging personality on stage belies his tough East New York section of Brooklyn upbringing. Though he can woo an audience with his funny storytelling ability, he's best known for his impressions of Eddie Murphy, Richard Pryor and Bill Cosby.

Penn State's Comedy Night is sponsored by the Student Life Office and the Student Government Association. For more information, call the Campus at 675-9284
