

Phyllis Mundy will run for fourth term in House

State Representative Phyllis Mundy has announced that she will seek a fourth term in the Pennsylvania House of Representatives. Mundy (D-Kingston) currently represents the 120th Legislative District, which includes Dallas Borough, Kingston Township and parts of Dallas Township.

Mundy reaffirmed a pledge made at the kick-off of each of her campaigns, to work hard, study the issues and do the best both at home and in Harrisburg to act in their best interests.

Mundy has supported and promoted legislation targeted at improvements in education and environmental policy, crime prevention, tax fairness and government efficiency and accountability.

Legislation which Mundy sponsored in the 1995-96 session includes the Affordable Housing Trust Fund Bill, the Sunset Review of Government Agencies Bill, Day Care Unannounced Inspections Bill, and the Suppression of Forest Insects Bill.

As a member of the House Commerce and Economic Development Committee, Mundy has been involved in promoting economic growth in the region, working closely with area business leaders, economic development agencies, and representatives of potential new businesses to explore opportunities for private sector job development.

"I do not believe government should be in the business of creating jobs," says Mundy, "but I do believe government must work in partnership with business to promote job development and economic vitality."

REP. PHYLLIS MUNDY

Mundy also serves on the House Education and Professional Licensure Committees. She served as Chair of a subcommittee of the Democratic Policy Committee that was charged with developing the Democratic Caucus Agenda for the '95-'96 session.

A graduate of Kingston High School and Bloomsburg State College, Representative Mundy was the business manager of a multi-million dollar manufacturing facility prior to her 1990 election to the House. She has served as a volunteer with the Junior League, the Domestic Violence Service Center and Volunteers for Literacy. Mundy is a two-term past president of the League of Women Voters of the Wilkes-Barre Area.

Mundy is the parent of a son, Brian, who resides in Pittsburgh with his wife, April.

'Spiritual Adventure' starts at Dallas Baptist Church

On February 18, Dallas Baptist Church joined thousands of other congregations worldwide in a 50-Day Spiritual Adventure designed to provide practical guidelines for facing life's inevitable confusions.

Titled "What To Do When You Don't Know What to Do: Trusting Christ When Life Gets Confusing," the series will run through Easter Sunday, April 7.

More than one million Christians worldwide are expected to participate.

Each 50-Day Spiritual Adventure is built around eight Sunday themes. This year the Adventure will focus on eight specific ways to handle confusing situations.

In addition to hearing weekly sermons on these topics, adults, students and children at Dallas Baptist Church will follow a daily workbook called an Adventure journal, completing assignments that include charting daily joys, meeting with others for prayer, and finding specific ways to remove clutter from their lives.

More than three million people in North America have been involved in the annual 50-Day Spiritual Adventure since it began in 1980.

Pastor Colladay encourages anyone who would like to become a part of the Adventure to visit Dallas Baptist Church at Route 415 Dallas-Harveys Lake Highway or call 639-5099 for more information. Sunday worship services are held at 8:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. All are welcome.
