MR. AND MRS. CHRISTOPHER J. BLEEKER

Susan Jane Niskey weds Christopher John Bleeker

Susan Jane Niskey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay P. Niskey, Dallas, and Christopher John Bleeker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henk Bleeker, were united in marriage October 21, 1995 at Shavertown United Methodist Church, Shavertown.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Reverend Robert Coscia, Jr., and Pastor James Wert. The organist was Mr. Brian Davey and the soloist was Mr. Richard Williams. Readings were given by Dr. Pamela Lundberg, Mr. David Osman and Ms. Deborah Lynn Roy.

The bride chose Karen Niskey, her sister, as her best woman. The brides-women were Jacqueline Odagis, sister of the groom, Susan MacAvoy Sweet, and Patricia Long. The groom chose his brother, Craig Bleeker as the best man. The grooms-men were Dean Odagis, brother-in-law of the groom, Richard Giuliani and Lawrence Flynn.

A rehearsal party was held at The Beaumont Inn, Dallas. An evening cocktail hour and reception were held at the Irem Temple Country Club in Dallas.

The bride is a graduate of Dallas High School, Ithaca College and holds a MBA/MS from Temple University. She is employed as a senior consultant with Zelenkofske, Axelrod & Co., Ltd. in Jenkinstown, PA. The groom is a graduate of Bishop McDevitt High School and holds a BS from Temple University. He is employed as an assistant project manager with Durrell Builders in Princeton, NJ.

Following a honeymoon in Montego Bay, Jamaica, the couple resides in North Wales, Pennsylvania.

MR. AND MRS. KENNETH A. WILLIAMS

Kathleen Casterline weds Kenneth A. Williams

Kathleen Casterline, daughter of Mrs. Frances Casterline and the late Richard Casterline of Wyoming, and Kenneth A. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Williams, Sr., Trucksville, and Elizabeth Williams, Forty Fort, were united in marriage September 23, 1995, at Carverton United Methodist Church. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Jackson Cox.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her brother, Ronald Casterline. She chose Sherry Kawolski as her best woman. Brideswomen were Karen Shiber and Amy Rogers. The flower girl was Paige Ivy Williams, daughter of the bride and groom.

The groom chose his brother, Robert Williams, as his best man. Grooms-men were Matt Johnson and Daniel Casterline. The ring bearer was Ronald Casterline.

Musical selections were performed by soloist Gloria Williams, accompanied by organist Kevin O'Malia.

An evening cocktail hour and dinner reception were held after the ceremony at Genetti's in Wilkes-Barre.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the parents of the groom. The bride was honored at an outdoor bridal shower hosted by her mother and bridal attendants.

The bride and groom will reside in Franklin Township with daughter Paige, where they will live happily ever after.

'The second week, I had it sold!'

Bob Jones
Lehman

For two years, real estate agents tried to sell Bob Jones's house in Oak Hill, without success. Finally, he decided to try selling on his own, but he didn't want to pay the high price of daily newspaper ads. So he put an ad in The Dallas Post at the special 4-week rate. Was he surprised! He got about a dozen calls, and found a buyer the second week.

Needless to say, Bob was happy he'd discovered the easy-to-place, inexpensive classified ads in The Post. And we imagine the buyers are happy, too, since they found the house of their dreams.

Now, we have nothing against real estate agents - in fact, some of our best friends sell homes for a living - but, they haven't exactly flocked to The Post classified pages. Maybe they will now, especially if you ask them to advertise your house here.

If you're selling something, hiring help or looking for work, give The Post a look. You might be surprised too.
