ADVERTISING POLICY

The Abington Journal attempts to maintain high ethical standards in our advertising columns. We ask to see the information that a reader would receive if payment is required, in order to verify its value. We also require ads listing 900 numbers, which are paid calls, to include the cost per minute in their copy.

If you feel that an ad has misrepresented information, or that you have been treated unethically by one of our advertisers, please call our office at: 587-1148 so that we may investigate.

"All politics is local"

*Thomas, "Tip" O'Neill
Former Speaker of the House*

Shouldn't your advertising be, too?

Love him or hate him, Tip O'Neill knew one thing — when the votes are counted, it doesn't matter what people who live outside your district think about you. That's as true in the Back Mountain as it is in Back Bay, so if you're planning campaign advertising for a local office, put it where it will count the most...in The Dallas Post.

most influential and active in the region, so getting their vote might mean getting even more — their influence with friends and neighbors. Sure, the city papers can claim more circulation, but what good does it do if the readers live in Wilkes-Barre, Pittston or Mountaintop? Not a bit. Put your advertising where the votes are — in The Dallas Post. Call today for low rates and other information.
