

'American Cowboy' visits Westmoreland

In February Jerry Brown delighted Westmoreland Elementary students with his portrayal of an "American Cowboy" through songs, magic tricks, stories and old-time melodrama featuring some of the students and teachers as the cast. Many thanks to Mr. Manzoni and Mr. Shaver, who in good nature played the villains and took a pie in the face for their effort.

Wilkes seeks vendors for craft show

Wilkes University Cares is seeking antique vendors and crafters to sell handmade or antique items at the Second Annual Craft and Antique Show, on Sunday, April 28, from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Arnaud C. Marts Center, South Franklin Street, Wilkes-Barre.

Interested vendors must contact Anita Burns by Monday, April 1, at 831-4730 or 1-800-WILKES-U, ext. 4730.

All proceeds will benefit Wilkes Cares, a faculty/staff run committee that raises funds for the Student AIDS Awareness Committee to bring presenters, and possibly Project Quilt to Wilkes for the next annual AIDS Awareness Week.
