Vodzak to attend HOBY youth leadership conference

Jennifer Vodzak, a sophomore at Dallas Senior High School will represent the school at the 18th annual Central Pennsylvania Leadership Seminar of the Hugh O'Brian Youth Foundation (HOBY), May 16-19, at Millersville University.

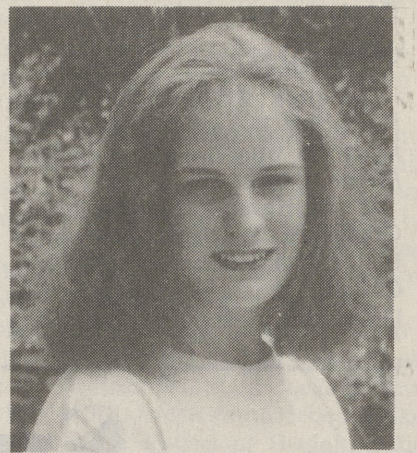

Jennifer has been an Honors with Distinction student at Dallas since the sixth grade. She has won numerous awards for her scholastic achievements, including the American Legion Award for distinguished achievement.

Active in her school, Jen is a student council and a sophomore steering committee representative. She has been part of the committee exploring the four-period day curriculum to be enacted next year.

As part of the History Day competition at Penn State-Lehman, her team took third place and will compete in States at the Penn State-Main Campus on May 8 and 9.

Jen is also a member of the Forensics team, a former member of the Law Explorers, and a member of the Medical Explorers Post, through the Boy Scouts.

For the past two years, Jen has volunteered in a program tutoring students from 1st to 5th grade at Dallas Elementary.

JENNIFER VODZAK

As a member of Gate of Heaven Church, Jen is a lay reader at Mass and a Sunday school teachers aide. She enjoys babysitting, reading, indoor soccer and is a self-taught calligrapher. Oldest of four sisters, she is the daughter of John and Ann Vodzak of Dallas.

The seminar recognizes and develops the leadership potential in outstanding sophomores, providing a structured and intense setting for them to interact with recognized local, state and national leaders of business, education, the arts, government, and the professions on the theme of "America's Incentive System."
