Lake-Noxen celebrates National Safe Kids Week

To commemorate National Safe Kids Week, May 4-11, the Luzerne County Chapter of Pennsylvania Safe Kids recently presented Lake-Noxen fifth grade students with the first local Safe Kids Citation. The students developed a project to increase playground safety, which included installation of safer equipment and ideas to reduce fights and rough play on the playground. The school will also participate in Safe Kids Check America, a nation-wide program that encourages families to complete the Family Safety Check. Attending were, back row, from left, Safe Kids Members: Cindy Brin, Head Start; Michael Mulvey, Department of Health; Linda Tirpak, WVHCS; JoAnn Maranski, Rural Health; Tara Gadomski, American Red Cross; and Mr. Kunkle, principal of Lake-Noxen School; front row, Lake-Noxen Fifth Grade Safety Committee: Donna Kaminski, Scott Hadsall, Matthew Navin, Adam Suttliiff, Brad Baird, Mary Yurksis, Stephanie Frank, Amy Ruda, Megan Thorne; Tiffany Hettes.

Kings to celebrate 50th anniversary

King's College will "Celebrate the Experience" of 50-year history with a kickoff celebration May 31. A full schedule of events through June 1997 will pay tribute to the college's academic and religious foundations, while recognizing the accomplishments of students, alumni, faculty and friends of the college.

On May 31, there will be a ceremony at 11 a.m. at the Luzerne County Courthouse commemorating the granting of the King's College charter by the Luzerne County Court in May, 1946. Alumni and descendants of the original signatories of the charter have been invited to join Luzerne County officials, King's College faculty, staff, administrators and students. A reception will follow.

For more information on any of the Jubilee events, contact the King's College Public Relations Office at 826-5883.
