Fab British comedy now on stage at the Music Box

No Sex Please, We're British, is one of the most hysterical British imports in the last two decades to arrive on our shores after having run for eight years in London. It has entertained theater-goers throughout the United States continuously for a number of years.

The Music Box Players will offer this delightful comedy June 13-16, and 20-22.

Under the directions of Kevin D. Costley, the cast includes: Ted Anderson and Diane Yenason as Peter and Frances Hunter. Their hapless, put-upon friend, Brian, is played by Michael Lundy. Others in the cast are: Judith S. Fried, Stephen M. Stylinski, Michael Gallagher, Joshua Levandoski and Kevin D. Costley.

Thursday through Saturday performances are at 8 p.m. The cash bar opens at 6 p.m., and a buffet dinner is served at 6:30 p.m. At Sunday matinees, the bar opens at 1:30 p.m., the buffet is served at 2 p.m., and curtain is at 3:15 p.m. On June 14, a special served dinner will be offered. Patrons may choose either prime rib of beef or flounder stuffed with crabmeat.

Michael Lundy, Ted Anderson and Diane Yenason appear in No Sex Please, We're British. Frances Hunter, British bride of a few weeks, has innocently ordered by mail glassware from Scandinavia. What arrives, instead, is a flood of Scandinavian pornography, photographs, books, films, and eventually girls. Frances and Peter must decide what to do with the tons of unwanted scandalous material without Peter's mother, his boss, and the police catching on.
