Lake-Lehman students in Upward Bound

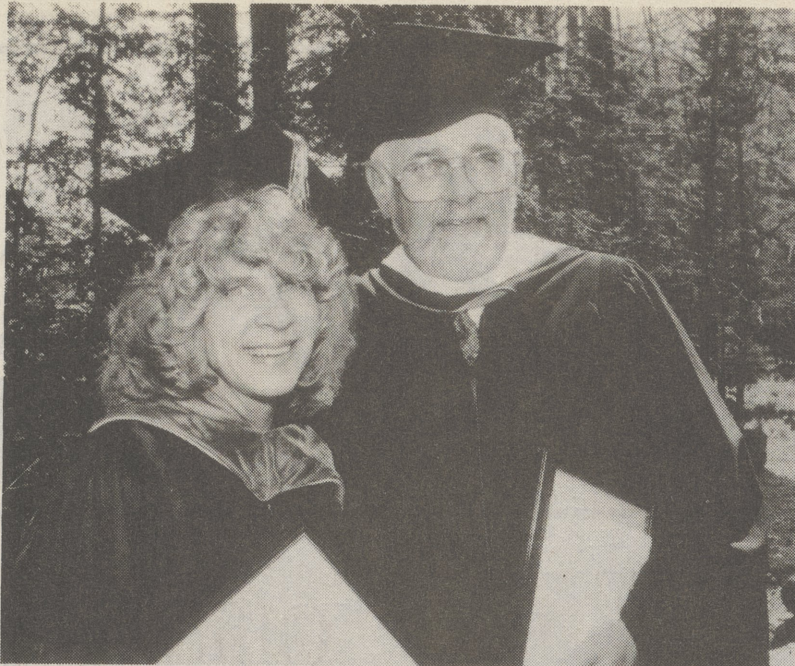

Five Lake-Lehman students were recently accepted to the Wilkes University Upward Bound program.

Students are Alicia Ciminelli, Crystal Copeland, Chavon Croman, Christine Dinger and Kathy Rudaski.

They join 69 current members in a pre-college experience designed to prepare students academically and personally for success in post-secondary education.

Upward Bound students attend weekly academic classes and workshops on career and self-development. They also have an opportunity to attend summer residential program, take educational trips and participate in leadership activities.

Wilkes University has hosted the Upward Bound program since it was undertaken in 1967.

Misericordia honors teachers

College Misericordia's 1996 Excellence in Teaching Awards were presented to David Payne and Dr. Kathleen Nolan at the College's 70th commencement.

Payne received the award in core curriculum, while Nolan was cited for her work in professional programs. The winners were selected by current Misericordia students and the class of 1995. Payne, a resident of Harveys Lake, is an associate professor of English literature and has taught at Misericordia since 1967. He holds an M.A. from Seton Hall University. He has served as department chair or division chair and on several committees, including the humanities scholarship committee.

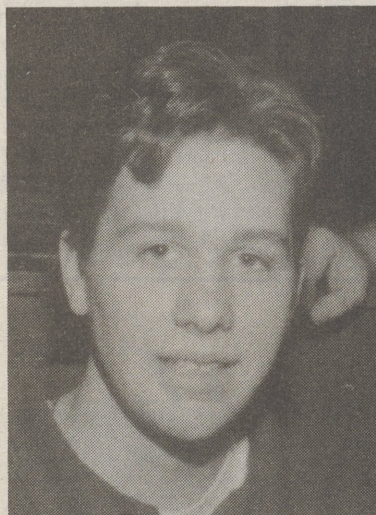

Dr. Kathleen Nolan of Dallas is a professor of education who began teaching at Misericordia in 1986. She holds a Ph.D. from St. Louis University. She has served as department chair and was the force behind College Misericordia's "All Children Are Special" summer program. She also received the award for Excellence in Teaching in 1990.
