

NATIONAL WINS TWICE

Braves end season at 14-0

The Back Mt. Braves completed the regular season with a perfect 14-0 record.

Braves 7 - Back Mt. Indians 5 (6/18/96)

The Braves held off the Indians in a thrilling 10-inning game which featured fine pitching and fielding by both teams. Winning pitcher Josh Katyl and Stephen Moyer combined to strikeout 16 batters, while Indians pitcher Brian Vetter also pitched well striking out 11 Braves over eight innings.

Moyer's clutch two out two RBI single in the 10th inning was the difference in the game. Vetter added a triple and Matt Eyt had two hits for the Indians.

Braves 19 - Back Mt. Pirates 2 (6/23/96)

The Braves pounded out 16 hits led by Robbie Amann's three hits (two doubles) Josh Katyl added four hits (two doubles) and T.J. Dougherty banged out three hits.

Dan Laurenzi had two hits for the Pirates with Randy Knappman adding a double.

Moyer pitched well earning the win with Justin Bicking earning the save.

Braves 7 - Back Mt. Rockies 5 (6/27/96)

Winning pitcher Jared Karalunas pitched well for the Braves with Lloyd Droppers earning the save.

Stephen Moyer led the hitting going three for four with five RBIs.

Frank Velde, Collin McHale and B.J. Lewis led the hitting for the Rockies.

Braves 17 - Avoca-Dupont 11 (6/28/96)

Josh Katyl pitched four innings allowing one run on two hits. Dan Krause and Paul Hiller completed the pitching for the Braves. Katyl led the hitting going three for three with two triples. Stephen Moyer added a long double with Hiller adding a triple and a single.

Braves 15 - Harveys Lake Indians 2 (6/29/96)

Stephen Moyer and Jared Karalunas combined to allow only three hits with Moyer earning the win. Karalunas helped his own cause with two hits. Josh Katyl, Justin DiGiuseppe and Moyer all had two hits.

C. Navin had two hits for Harveys Lake with C. Besteder adding a single.

Camp Orchard Hill chases Hosey's for rec league lead

Camp Orchard Hill led by Jay McGovern's 22 points whipped Woychick Acc. 74-54 in the Dallas Rec Summer Basketball League last Wednesday evening. The win coupled with an earlier win last week boosted the campers to a 4-1 mark. Woychick Accounting split last week and now stands at two-two.

Lion Inc. also split on the week, their win coming against the Knights 65-55 behind John Guido's 20 points. The winners now stand at 2-3. The Knights lost a pair last week and now hold a 1-3 mark.

Olivers joined the "Split Club" by besting Athletic Image 41-32 and losing to Woychick Acc. earlier last week. Corey Cherup's 12 points paced Olivers to their victory. Their record is now 2-2. Athletic Image is still winless on the year at 0-4.

The league will take a break for the July 4 holiday before resuming on Monday July 8 with three games starting at 5:15 at the Rec Center on Burndale Road in Dallas.

Offensively for the Royals, Russell Kalinoskas had a pair of triples and Mike Racoski had a two-run home run. The winning pitcher was Kyle Reeves, who pitched the whole game. The winning manager was Jim Smith for the Royals. Players were from left, kneeling: Joe Burgess, Russell Kalinoskas, Ryan Bolton, Adam Schoonover, BJ Lewis, Tim Dymond; second row, John Miller, Chris Yale, Ryan Love, Danny Piccillo, Kyle Reeves, Mike Smith, Mike Racoski; third row, Manager James Smith, Coach Bill Lewis.

Klimek will attend Misericordia in fall

Dallas High School golf standout Tom Klimek has announced that he will continue his academic and athletic careers at College Misericordia.

Klimek was a three-year letterman for the Mountaineers, who finished tied for first in the Wyoming Valley Conference and were the District 2 runners-up in 1995.

As a senior, he was named all-scholastic and won the pre-district tournament while recording a nine-hole average of 38.5.

The son of Ron and Jean Klimek of Shavertown, Tom plans to study biology at Misericordia.

day when Piambianco threw out Lacey from center field.

Faneck, Miller, Evans and Piambianco each scored twice for the Americans. Faneck and Emanuel recorded two hits. Short-stop Bobby Gebhardt picked up three assists and two putouts while making several nice plays in the field. The crowd roared when he chased down a grounder up the middle in the sixth robbing Kalinay of a hit.

Kapson reached base all four times for Harveys Lake, picking up two hits and a walk. He also scored one run and drove home another.

Kalinay took the loss for Harveys Lake, which went through four pitchers. Besides Martinson, Waltman and Kapson saw action on the mound.
