Two-car accident sends 4 passengers to hospitals

DALLAS TOWNSHIP - A two-car accident Aug. 7 shortly after 2 p.m. tied up traffic on Route 415 and Center Hill Road and sent four people to area hospitals.

Police said a 1987 Chevrolet Cavalier operated by Warren Barlow, 56, of RR 4, Dallas, was traveling north on the highway in the construction zone when an orange and white barrel used for temporary traffic control blew in front of his car and became lodged underneath, forcing him to stop.

His car was struck in the rear by a 1994 Ford Escort operated by Elizabeth Gittens, 49, of RR2 Shickshinny, who was also traveling north on the highway.

John W. Gittens, 52, a passenger in the Gittens car, who suffered minor injuries and complained of neck pain, was taken by ambulance to the hospital.

Barlow and passenger Kathleen Barlow, 46, also complained of neck pain and were taken to the hospital, along with another passenger, Britneyla Chase, 4, who complained of chest and stomach pain.

No citations have been issued by investigating officer Elliot Ide.

Assisting at the scene were the Dallas Fire and Ambulance Company and the Kunkle ambulance.
