

Roaring Brook Church honors Brubakers' service

An open house celebration was held recently at Roaring Brook Baptist Church, Hunlock Creek to honor 20 years of ministry by Pastor Dan Brubaker and his wife Ruth Ann and their children.

On behalf of the entire congregation Tom and Lois Marvin presented Pastor and Ruth Ann with two photo albums filled with pictures of the church family, missionaries, members of the community, pastors from other local churches and special events held at the church, such as Vacation Bible School and the AWANA Ministry and Sunday School program.

Daniel and Alberta Hudzik presented Brubaker with an engraved desk clock thanking them for their 20 years of dedicated service at Roaring Brook Baptist Church and a monetary gift in appreciation for the unconditional love they have shown to each and every person they have met since moving to our community.

Pastor Dan Brubaker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Brubaker of Mount Pleasant Mills, and is a graduate of Middleburg High School.

He is also a 1975 graduate of Tennessee Temple University in Chattanooga, with a bachelor's degree in Bible Studies, and a 1995 graduate of Baptist Bible Seminary in Clarks Summit with a master's degree in pastoral ministry. Pastor Brubaker also served at a church in Scottsboro, Alabama for two years prior to moving to the Hunlock Creek area.

Ruth Ann Brubaker is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Richard Hackenberg of Millinburg, and is a graduate of Millinburg High School. She is also a graduate of Montco Area Technical School in Lansdale, receiving her licensed practical nursing degree in 1971. She attended classes at Tennessee Temple University from 1972 to 1975, and is currently working toward her bachelor's degree in women's studies from Trinity College in Indiana.

Pastor Dan and Ruth Ann were married in First Baptist Church, Northumberland, on December 8, 1971, and have four children. Danny is a graduate of Penn Tech in Williamsport and is currently working as a contractor. Beth Ann is a senior at Cedarville College, Cedarville, OH. Jason is a senior at Muhlenburg Christian Academy and is doing missionary work in the Dominican Republic this summer. Chris is an eighth grade student at Muhlenburg Christian Academy.

Rev. Dan and Ruth Ann Brubaker were recently honored for their service to the community by the congregation of the Roaring Brook Baptist church.

Antique propeller stolen from municipal building

HARVEYS LAKE - A large cast-iron steamboat propeller was stolen last weekend, between Friday night and noon Tuesday, from the grounds of the municipal building.

Believed to be the propeller from the Natoma, the lake's largest steamboat, it weighs several hundred pounds and requires "two very strong men" to lift it, according to Harveys Lake Protective Association president Guy Giordano.

"It's cast iron and three feet in diameter," he said. "It has four blades and is rust-colored - we stripped the paint from it."

The association planned to incorporate the propeller into a monument at the triangular grassy area at the Sunset section of the lake.

Anyone with any information on its whereabouts is asked to call the borough building at 639-2113. No questions will be asked, Giordano said.

Area couple earns service award from King's College

Harveys Lake summer residents John and Peg McKeown recently received the Rev. Lane Dixon Kilburn, C.S.C., Award for distinguished service to King's College.

John McKeown is administrator of the Allied Health Program at King's. The World War II veteran served the U.S. Government for 40 years as personnel director and assistant director at the Veterans Administration Medical Center, Wilkes-Barre, following a military career as personnel officer. He assumed his position at the college when he retired in 1978.

Former chairperson of the PARD committee of the United Way of Wyoming Valley, McKeown also has served the community as a member of the board of directors of the United Way; as a board member, past chairperson and volunteer with Catholic Social Services for 35 years; and as a past chairperson and board member of the Luzerne County Human Services Council for 20 years. He is cultural chairperson of the Donegal Society, AOH, and Friendly Sons, and chairperson of the FEMA committee for Luzerne County.

The couple has served on the board of trustees of the Passionist Nuns, Clarks Summit, for the past 30 years, where John currently serves as chairperson. The couple has volunteered for the King's College Annual Fund Drive for the past 12 years. John was chairperson for the 100th anniversary of Holy Saviour Church.

Peg McKeown is retired from the early childhood program in Wilkes-Barre area schools, where she still volunteers. She also volunteers at the Riverview Ridge Personal Care Center.

The McKeowns are the parents of six children and the grandparents of 14.

The couple is perhaps most well known in the area for their participation of the Irish Teachers Program. In 1974 the McKeowns originated the Irish Teachers program at King's which annually sponsors the visit of 25 to 30 teachers on a cultural exchange to the Wyoming Valley.
