DALLAS HIGH GUIDANCE NOTES

LCCC ed fair for juniors, seniors

Seniors and juniors should mark their calendars now and plan to attend the L.C.C.C. Education Fair on October 17 at 7 p.m. More than 100 schools will attend, so this is a great chance to research your college options. On the subject of colleges, any athlete who anticipates participating in a sport on the Division I or II level next fall (1997) must see their counselor to register with the NCAA Clearinghouse in the near future.

On October 5, Penn State Wilkes-Barre Campus will hold an Open House and picnic for prospective students. The program runs from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

The math department at Millersville University is offering $3,000 renewable scholarships to two new students entering Millersville in the fall of 1997 and major in math. See Mr. Wolensky for an application if you are interested.

The Syracuse University School of Architecture's design competition offers major scholarships for seniors interested in professional degrees in architecture. This year, Syracuse is offering $55,000 in scholarship/competition awards. See your counselor for details.

Any senior whose parents work for Dowd Marketing, Inc. should check with their guidance counselor for possible scholarship opportunities.

Attention sophomores! Do you consider yourself a leader? If so, why not apply to be the Dallas High School representative to the Hugh O'Brian Youth Foundation

Leadership Seminar. The principal's committee will select one sophomore who shows outstanding leadership ability, sensitivity to others, and the desire to communicate your knowledge to your peers. The emphasis is on personal incentive and leadership potential. The student selected will be invited to attend a weekend seminar sponsored by the Hugh O'Brian Foundation. See Mr. Wolensky to apply.

The following colleges will visit the Dallas High School in the near future during the Flex Period:

- Oct. 4, Marywood College, 11 a.m.
- Oct. 11, Lock Haven University, 11 a.m.
- Oct. 15, L.C.C.C., 11 a.m.
- Oct. 17, Delaware Valley, 11 a.m.

Sgt. Baker from the U.S. Marines will be here on October 3 to meet with interested juniors and seniors.

Answer to last week's trivia question: College Misericordia was founded in 1924 by the Religious Sisters of Mercy.

This week's question: Who am I?

I was founded in 1933 when Bucknell University established a branch campus in this area. My original name was Bucknell University Junior College. Today I am a full university with 2,200 undergraduate and 500 graduate students. Who am I? (Check back next week for the answer.)
