St. Therese's Altar and Rosary to meet

St. Therese's Altar and Rosary will meet Wed., Nov. 6 in the social room at 7 p.m. for recitation of the Rosary followed by the monthly meeting. Results of the recent Birthday Tea will be given and Christmas Dinner plans will be discussed. The dinner is scheduled for Sun., Dec. 1, at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Luzerne. Tickets will be on sale, Nov. 16, 17, 23 and 24 at the church or reservations can be made by calling Mary Petty at 696-2795. Favors for the dinner will be made following the meeting and everyone should bring a pair of scissors. Donations are being accepted at every monthly meeting for the Back Mountain Food Bank. Several women from the Society will be helping out at the Soup Kitchen, Nov. 3. Refreshments will be served by Kate Borys, Dorothy Cebrick, Vicki Leo and Ann Strucko. All women of the parish are invited to attend the meeting.

No parking on streets during storms

In order to facilitate the movement of traffic and to combat the hazards of snow and ice Dallas Borough residents are reminded that parking vehicles on streets during snow or ice forming storms is prohibited. Snow and ice must be removed from sidewalks and gutters within five hours after a storm, snow or ice forming after 6 p.m. may be removed at any time before 10 a.m. of the following day.

DISTRICT COURT BRIEFS

Fined $1,000 for theft of chair

Joseph V. Calabro, 38, of Exeter pled guilty to stealing a child's wooden chair from The Cottage gift shop on Route 309, Dallas in August. Charges of receiving stolen property, tampering with evidence and providing unsworn false testimony were dismissed. Calabro was arrested after Kingston Twp. officer Frank Buckler noticed his Blazer parked in front of The Cottage at 5:20 a.m. Aug. 3. Buckler saw the Blazer, with its lights off, leave the store and head north on Rt. 309. He pulled Calabro over and noticed wooden furniture similar to that sold at The Cottage in the back of the truck. Buckler's report said it was obvious Calabro had been drinking, and he told the officer that the items had been bought by his wife. Calabro's wife denied that she had bought the items. Calabro was asked by police to provide receipts for the items and later showed falsified receipts for them. Calabro finally admitted that he had stolen the chair, but had bought other items from someone at a bar he had been drinking at before driving to Dallas.

Calabro was fined $1,000 plus costs of $82 by District Justice James Tupper.

CHARGED WITH GIVING FALSE REPORT

Gerald Earl Miller, 40, Box 90, Harris Hill Rd., Dallas, waived his right to a preliminary hearing on charges of giving a false report to authorities, driving while his license was suspended or revoked and driving an unregistered motor vehicle. A charge of operating a vehicle without a valid inspection sticker was dismissed. Miller was stopped July 4 by Dallas Borough officer James Martin when he was observed driving slowly on Rt. 309. When Martin stopped him, Miller said he didn't have his license with him, and identified himself as Barry Miller, but said he didn't know his Social Security number. Miller was eventually identified by Kingston Twp. officer Walter Davis.

DUI CHARGES

The following individuals have been charged with driving under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance, and have waived their right to a preliminary hearing:

• Daniel F. Fagan Jr., 22, 117 Country Club Apts., Dallas, was arrested after officer Charles Rauschkolb of the Kingston Twp. police department saw him driving a red Mustang slowly and erratically on Rt. 309 in Shavertown just after midnight Aug. 21. After failing field sobriety tests, Fagan was taken to Wilkes-Barre General Hospital for a blood test. His blood alcohol level was measured at .189%, above the legal limit of .1%.

• Ernest M. Smith, 36, 347 Old Lake Rd., Dallas, was arrested by Officer John Masloski of the Lake Twp. police department, after he was involved in a one-vehicle accident at about 11 p.m. Aug. 18. Smith's pickup truck struck a utility pole near the intersection of Church Rd. and School House Rd. After noticing the odor of alcohol and observing that Smith's speech was slow and slurred, Masloski placed him under arrest. He was taken to W-B General Hospital by ambulance and refused to take a blood alcohol test, which results in suspension of his driver's license for one year.

• Anthony T. Mattick, 48, 65 Brazil St., Wilkes-Barre, was arrested by officer M. John Haley of the Lehman Twp. police department after his car was observed going through a stop sign at Lake Silkworth, then speeding along Rt. 29 July 26, near midnight. After failing field sobriety tests, Mattick was taken to the county processing center where his blood alcohol level was measured by breathalyzer testing at .149%.

• John M. Borick, 56, 300 Parkview Circle, Wilkes-Barre, was arrested by Lehman Twp. officer William Purcell after his 1978 Ford Thunderbird was observed driving erratically on Rt. 118 Aug. 4. When he stopped the car, Purcell saw a partially empty bottle of vodka on the seat and smelled alcohol on Borick's breath. Because Borick uses a cane, and said he had two artificial hips, Purcell was unable to administer field sobriety tests. Borick became belligerent, according to the report, and was taken to the Lehman Twp. police station, then to W-B General Hospital where he refused to take a blood alcohol test.

• Darren James Dixon, 26, RR 3, Box 285-1, Dallas, was charged with driving under the influence disregarding driving on roadways laned for traffic and careless driving. He was observed at about 7 p.m. July 28 by State Trooper Truman Brandt driving on Lake Louise Rd. in Franklin Twp., completely in the westbound lane while traveling east. The trooper said he had to drive off the roadway to avoid a collision with Dixon's pickup truck. Tpr. Brandt stopped the truck and asked Dixon to perform field sobriety tests, which he failed. Dixon submitted to a blood alcohol test, which found the level at .25%, more than double the maximum allowable limit of .1%.

Dixon was represented at his preliminary hearing by Atty. Michael Melnick.

• William Howley, 27, RR 2, Box 202A, Hunlock Creek, was charged with driving under the influence and disregarding a traffic lane after he was stopped at about 4 a.m. Aug. 18 by Kingston Twp. officer James Ibbotson when he was observed driving erratically along Rt. 309 and on Carverton Rd. After failing field sobriety tests, Howley was taken to W-B General Hospital where his blood alcohol level was measured at .269%.

• Sean T. McCormack, 26, P.O. Box 322, Factoryville, was charged with driving under the influence and careless driving. Dallas Borough officer James Martin observed McCormack driving erratically and speeding on Rt. 309 at about 2 a.m. Aug. 25. Martin clocked McCormack at 60 mph in a 40 mph zone before Martin was able to pull him over. After failing field sobriety tests, McCormack refused to take a blood alcohol test, resulting in an automatic one-year suspension of his license. A charge of exceeding the speed limit was dismissed.
