

Wyoming Sem hosts local meeting

"Backyard gatherings" are slated during the month of November to introduce interested parents and students to Wyoming Seminary and its programs.

The gathering is scheduled in Dallas, Nov. 20, from 7 to 9 p.m.

"This gathering will give families a chance to get together and learn more about Wyoming Seminary in an informal setting," said Alice Droppers, parent network coordinator.

Wyoming Seminary is the only independent day and boarding school in northeastern Pennsylvania that offers a comprehensive program from pre-kindergarten through college preparatory levels. Seminary's Lower School campus in Forty Fort enrolls more than 380 day students in pre-kindergarten through eighth grade; its Upper School campus in Kingston enrolls more than 395 day and boarding students from 22 countries in grades nine through postgraduate.

For more information, or to make reservations for the gathering, contact Wyoming Seminary at 283-6060.

Jen Janerich named Wyoming Sem Homecoming Queen

Jennifer Janerich of Shavertown was crowned as Homecoming Queen at Homecoming festivities Oct. 26.

Janerich was chosen by the Homecoming Committee and was crowned after the homecoming football game against German-town Academy. She was escorted by Tony Agati of Dallas.

The daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Albert D. Janerich, Janerich is a member of the tennis team and qualified for the district singles and doubles, was a District doubles finalist and State qualifier for doubles in 1995, and was invited to play tennis in England for the World Sports Exchange.

Janerich played on the softball team for three years, is a member of the International Orientation Committee, AIDS Awareness, and the Prom Committee. She has volunteered at the JCC Summer Camp as a counselor and is a member of the Christian Apostolic Church in Plains. She plans to major in business at Connecticut College next fall.

Margaret Buonsante of Shavertown and Courtney Williams of Dallas were members of the homecoming court, chosen by their peers on the basis of citizenship, participation in school activities, and commitment to Seminary life.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gaetano Buonsante of Shavertown, Margaret is on the field hockey team, and was selected for the 14th Annual Field Hockey Coaches' Association All-Star Classics game on Nov. 18 to be played at Lackawanna County Stadium. She was also manager of the lacrosse team. Buonsante plans to attend Lehigh Univ., where she will major in business management. She was escorted by Daniel Harris of Kingston.

Courtney Williams, the daughter of Pamela Boonin of Dallas and Thomas Williams, also of Dallas, is on the tennis team, and has received three varsity letters. She was a District doubles finalist, participated in the State competition, and was invited to play in the World Sports Exchange in England. As she considers her college choices, she looks forward to majoring in either physical therapy or health management next fall. She was escorted by Adam Richards of Dallas.

Lehman-Jackson PTA holds three fundraising drives

The Lehman Jackson PTA this year has three separate committees dedicated to collecting various items to help towards educational items for the school.

Campbell's Labels and other proofs of purchase from over 1200 Campbell's product varieties are eligible for redemption in "Campbell's Labels For Education" program. There is a drop-off box just inside the entrance of the Lehman-Jackson Elementary School and labels will be collected to help the PTA purchase much needed software for the school computers. Any questions can be directed to PTA Chairperson Susie Mulhern at 675-2976.

Hills receipts are being collected this year now that Lehman-Jackson is participating in the "Hills Education First" Program. We will be collecting the bottom portion of the receipts (dated 8/1/96 through 4/30/97) to earn supplies for the students. The actual receipt is not needed, just the "Supply-A-School" portion with the dollar amount on it. "Supply-A-School" stubs will be added up and used towards audio-visual or computer equipment, library books, athletic equipment, art supplies and more. This committee is headed by Patty Harabin. For more information call her 674-4063.

The PTA is now participating in the "General Mills Cereal Box Tops

For Education" program. From now until the end of March 1997, the PTA will be collecting box tops from General Mills Cereals that have the "Box Tops For Education Logo" on them. Either send them to school with your children or call PTA chairperson Rose Payne for information at 477-3925.

All of these labels can be dropped off in the appropriate drop-off box in the lobby of the Elementary School.
