Flower Club brightens nursing homes

The West Side Flower Club with members from the Wyoming Valley, Back Mountain, Bear Creek and Shickshinny area have adopted a plan to visit a nursing home each month and arrange to see patients who have very few visitors or no visitors. The initial group to participate in this program visited the Lakeside Nursing Home, Harveys Lake and presented 29 patients with a miniature bouquet of flowers. Needless to say, there were many smiling faces.

Pictured above seated, Alma Brown and Donna Yatsko, Activities Director. Standing, Audrey Lord, Della Van Scoy, Shino Franquet and Ann Balavage, members of the flower club. The club meets every second Tuesday at the Church of Christ Uniting, Market St., Kingston at 6 p.m. Anyone interested in joining the club is welcome. The next meeting will be held Nov. 12 and will be the "Make It-Bake It-Grow-It-Sew It" meeting and there will be many items on display and also for sale.

Meadows honors campaign contributors

Several Back Mountain residents attended an appreciation party at the Pavilion on the Meadows Nursing Center campus for contributors to the annual campaign, the Rev. Dr. Jule Ayers Appeal, in memory of the co-founder of Ecumenical Enterprises, Inc. (EI).

Employees of quarter

Offset Paperback Mfrs., Inc. recently recognized the Accounting Department Staff as OPM's Employees-of-the-Quarter. In recognizing these employees, Michael J. Gallagher, OPM President, noted the recently completed very successful year-end closing, implementation of a new accounting system and the extra effort and expertise exhibited by each of the staff during the period of transition. Pictured from left to right are Patricia Survilla, Controller; Betty Howell, Accounts Payable Clerk; Amy Aston-Rome, Staff Accountant; Richard Pincofski, Vice-President-Finance & Control; Eugene Moyer, Financial Analyst; Donna Sorchik, Assistant Controller and George Rando, Staff Accountant.

A better education for your child is...

just around the corner

The gathering's informal, the dress is casual, and the coffee will be hot.

Join your Back Mountain neighbors (and Wyoming Seminary Lower School parents) Kent and Alice Droppers for an evening get-together with parents and teachers. Discover the difference Wyoming Seminary can make in your children's lives—from pre-kindergarten through eighth grade.

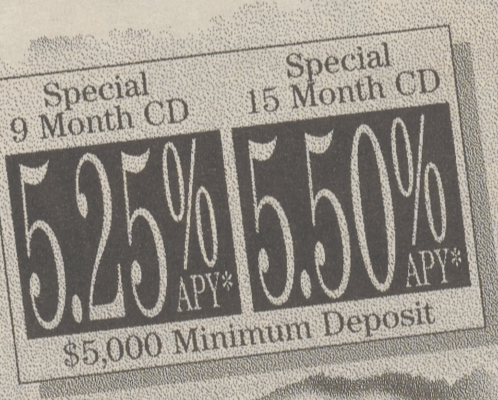

Wednesday, November 20th • 7 to 9 P.M.
