

ROLLING ART EXHIBIT

Sue Hand, well-known Dallas artist and art teacher, doesn't restrict her artistic expression to brush and paper. Her latest creation is "Remarkable," the 13-year-old Volkswagen Rabbit she and Jessica Kozemko, a student, have revived with a fresh coat — make that several coats — of paint. Sue explained that the car needed some body work, so husband Joe surprised her by suggesting it become a portable exhibition of the artist's work. After patching up some holes, Sue and Jessica went to work, applying a medium blue background over which they painted a seacoast scene complete with white picket fences and a lighthouse. Finishing touches are yet to come, including of course an artist hard at work. No piece of original work should be anonymous, so the artists added signatures on top of the front bumper.
