SuperSonics win U-14 Northeast Travel League

The Back Mt. SuperSonics beat the East Mt. Eagles 2-1 to take the U-14 travel league championship. The Sonics opened the scoring early with a goal by Josh Katyl. East Mt. tied the game in the second half. Both defenses played well and with only a few minutes remaining J.B. Bucha shot from outside the 18 yard line and beat a diving goalie. East Mt. mounted a fast second attack but the game ended as Sonic's goalie Colin McHale made a game ending save.

Arsenal claims U-11 travel title

Back Mountain Arsenal defeated Bloomsburg by the score of 2-1 to win the Northeast Travel U-11 championship. Bloomsburg opened the scoring with a goal in the opening minutes of play. William Gagliardi tied the game at the seven minute mark. The game remained tied when Tim Kerestes scored the game winner with under two minutes to play, keeping the Arsenal's undefeated record for both the spring and fall leagues intact.
