

Gala event for Harveys Lake Protective Ass'n

It was the gala event of the season, as members and guests of the Harveys Lake Protective Association gathered Saturday evening, November 9 to celebrate the annual Past Presidents' Autumn Dinner Dance.

The festivities were held at Appletree Terrace, Newberry Estate, Dallas, where the room was decorated in shades of autumn burgundy, rust and sparkling gold.

Following a relaxing social hour, a gourmet dinner was served featuring sliced tenderloin of beef with a bordelaise sauce or shrimp stuffed flounder with a white wine sauce.

The annual election was conducted, and the following will serve as the club's 1997 officers: Joseph Shaver, president; Matthew DePrimo, Guy Giordano, Peter Kaminski and Donald Marx as vice presidents; Carlene McCaffrey, secretary/treasurer and Marian DeBalko, historian.

Following the election, the group danced the night away listening to the fabulous sounds of Mark Lewis and Company, direct from the Poconos. A great time was had by all attending. Judi Shaver was chairperson of the event.
