

SportsWeek

Section 2

Wednesday, November 27, 1996

Bulls, Heat unbeaten in youth basketball

SIXERS 38 - MAGIC 34

Starting off the second week of 7th and 8th grade Dallas Youth Basketball, the Sixers defeated the Magic in a close game of 38-34.

After the first quarter the Magic led the Sixers by a score of 9-2, on the hot shooting of Jay Carroll. The Sixers regrouped in the second quarter, and narrowed the lead at halftime to 15-10. The Sixers kept the pressure up in the third quarter and cut the magic lead after three quarters to 23-21. The Sixers kept the momentum up through the fourth quarter, and came away with a hard fought victory.

The Sixers offense was led by Danny Fetko with 13 points, followed by David Finn with 10 points and Buddy Shah with 8 points. The Magic offense was led by Jay Carroll with a game high 21 points, followed by Chris Heister with 7 points. The Sixers record goes to 1-1, and the Magic record drops to 1-1.

HORNETS 39 - T'BLAZERS 28

In the second game of the afternoon, the Hornets defeated the Trailblazers by a score of 39-28. The Hornets came out strong in the first quarter by outscoring the Trailblazers 10-3 at quarter's end.

The second quarter had both teams trading baskets, with the halftime lead going to the Hornets by a score of 18-11. The third quarter had the Hornets outscoring the Trailblazers 9-2. In the fourth quarter the Trailblazers made a run for it, but came up short.

The Hornets offense was led by John Simonitis with 14 points, followed by Pat Barnard with 13 points and Andrew Dale with 4 points.

The Trailblazers offense was led by John Nackley with a game high 24 points, followed by Bruce Hubbard with 4 points. The Hornets record goes to 1-1, while the Trailblazers record falls to 0-2.

BULLS 45 - WARRIORS 14

In the third game it was the Bulls beating up on the Warriors by a score of 45-14. In the first quarter both teams traded baskets with the Bulls holding a 10-9 lead after the first stanza.

The Bulls scored 8 points in the second quarter, and played a stingy defense which kept the Warriors scoreless in the second quarter. The third and fourth quarters were much the same with the Bulls scoring at will.

The Bulls big inside men (Paul Dougal and Lloyd Droppers) were too much, for the much smaller Warrior team. The Bulls offense was led by Paul Dougal with a game high 24 points, followed by Lloyd Droppers with 9 points, and Danny Laurenzi and Bobby Gebhardt each chipping in with 6 points.

The Warriors offense was led by Justin Bicking with 8 points. The Bulls record goes to 2-0, while the Warriors drop to 0-2.

HEAT 48 - CELTICS 28

In the final game of the afternoon, the Heat defeated the Celtics by a score of 48-28. The first quarter was nip and tuck with both teams trading baskets. The Heat's Jason Race picked up his third foul midway through the first quarter, but the Heat managed to hold off the Celtics by a score of 9-6.

Each team traded baskets in the second quarter, with the halftime score showing the Heat leading 18-14. In the third quarter, the Heat opened up their inside game and outscored the Celtics 12-6. The fourth quarter was much the same, with the Heat outscoring the Celtics 18-8.

The Heat offense was led by Mike Domzalski with a game high 17 points, followed by Frank Oatridge with 8 points (including two key 3-point goals), Jason Race with 8 points, and Fran Yanik with 7 points.

The Heat received fine defense from Kevin Plekara and Jared Flowers. The Celtics offense was

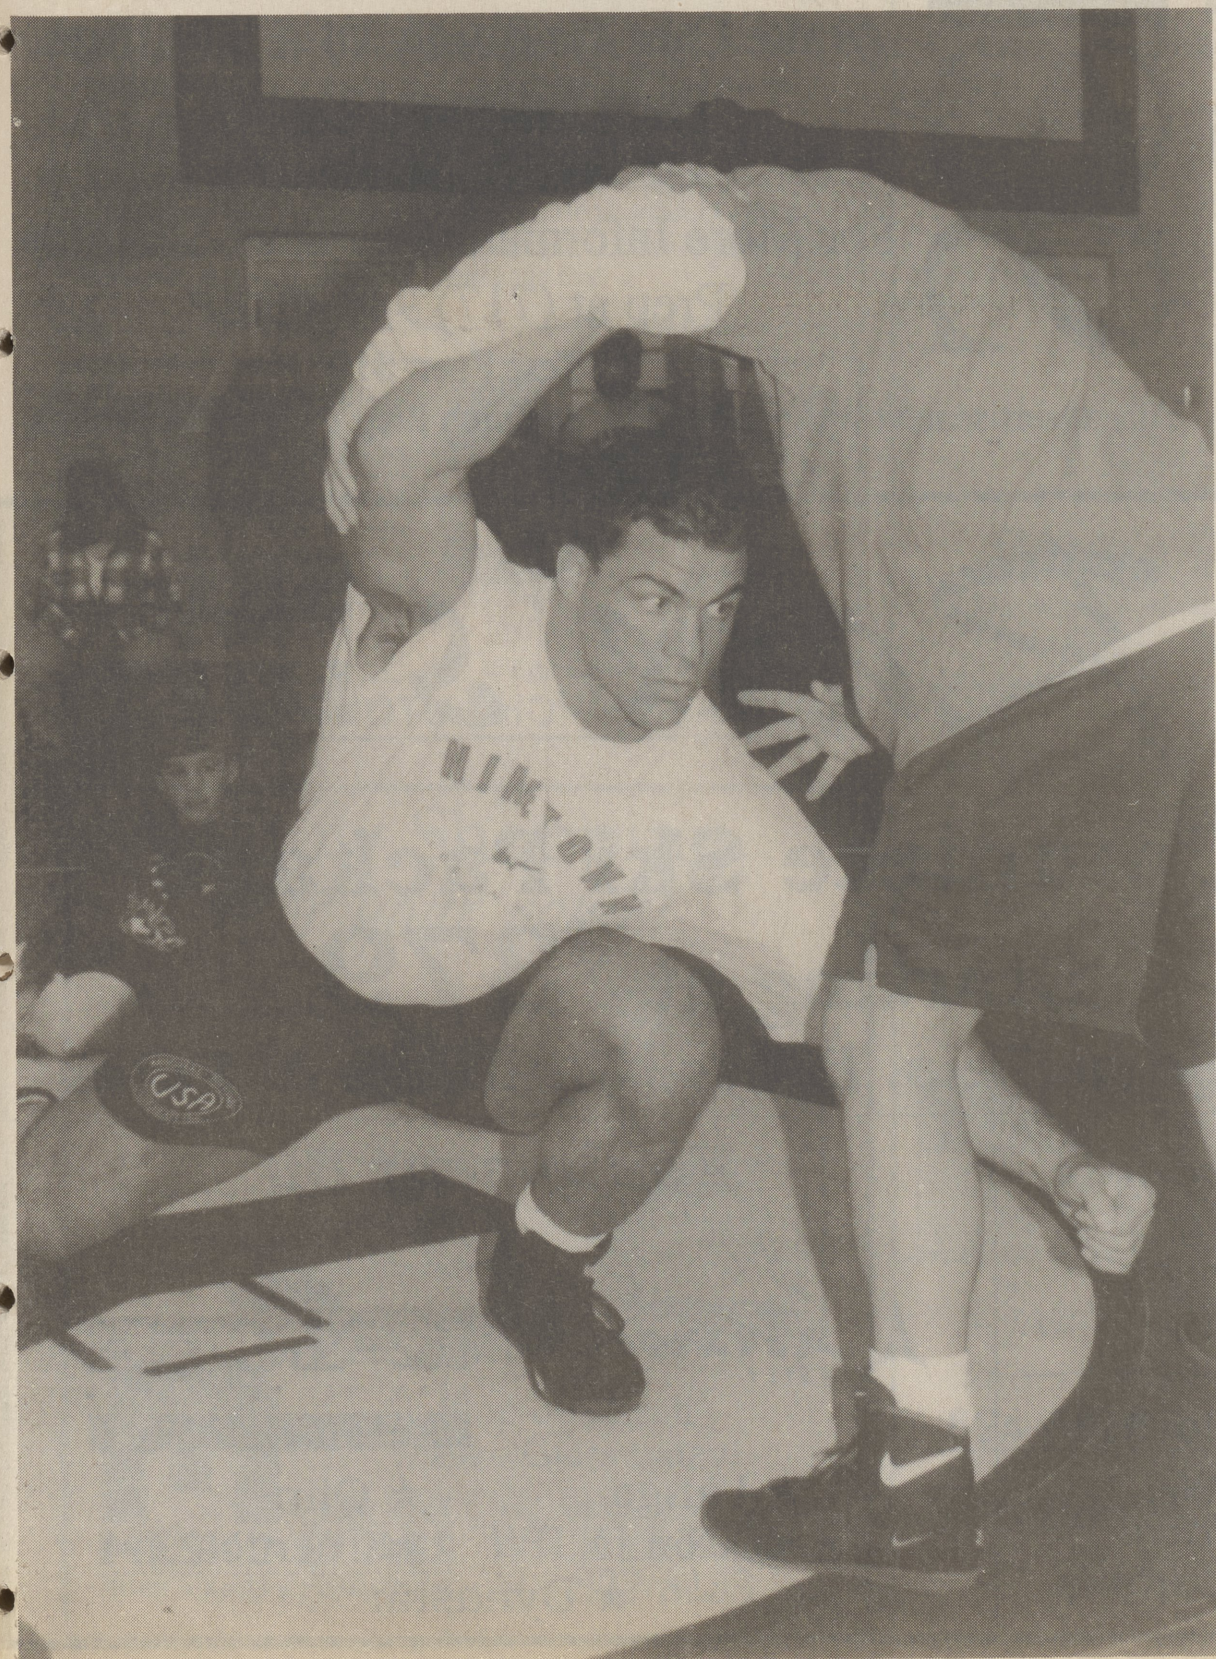

See BASKETBALL, pg 12

POWDER PUFFS? I DON'T THINK SO

The seniors and freshmen won the annual Lake-Lehman Powder Puff football game Saturday, taking a 12-6 win over the sophomores and juniors. In top photo, Jen McCall worked to get outside Jeanette Thrash, who was being blocked, probably illegally, by Tiffany Goldston, as ref Bill Jenkins looked on. At left, Missie Boltz was ready to hike to Rachel Kasper. Debbie White (46) is the setback. At right, Carrie Houssock broke free around blocking from Missie Boltz, Tanya Hillard and Libby Smee.

POST PHOTOS/JIM PHILLIPS

LESSON FROM A MASTER

Olympic gold medal wrestler Curt Angle was the guest instructor at last weekend's clinic hosted by the Back Mountain Wrestling Club, at Penn State Wilkes-Barre. Hundreds of young wrestlers, their coaches and families turned out. Below, Greg Kohli showed a move to his son Jared and Micheal Prater. At right, Matty Simms waited in line for his turn on the mat.

POST PHOTOS/JIM PHILLIPS

4-H'ers take 19 awards at state show

Luzerne County 4-H horse members received 19 awards, including two first place winnings, at the 37th annual State 4-H Horse Show held Oct. 25-27 at the State Farm Show Complex in Harrisburg.

County winners in 4-H performance classes were: Devon Lewis, Harveys Lake, 1st in Open Trail Horses, 1st in Western Grooming and Showmanship, Jr. Division, 8th in Stock Seat Equitation Jr. Division, 6th in Western Riding and 9th in Reining. Erin Liss, Dallas, 9th in English Grooming and Showmanship, Jr. Division. Amanda Adamitz, Shavertown, 4th in County Team and 5th in Pleasure Pairs. Wendy Wallo, Dallas, 4th in County Team, 6th in Hunter Seat Equitation over jumps, Jr. Division, and 6th in Working Hunter Horses. Alison Corey, Shavertown, 5th in Pleasure Pairs. Cyndi Boyle, Dallas, 4th in Reining. Megan Ross, Dallas, 7th in Hunter Under Saddle Ponies, and 6th in Working Hunter Ponies.

A few other Luzerne county horse club members from the Back Mountain received recognition in the state contest. They were Reagan Guelich, Dallas; Rebecca Conyngham, Dallas; Becky Yesley, Shavertown.

The competition gave 4-H'ers an opportunity to display their horsemanship skills," says Donna Grey, Extension Agent. The primary purpose of the state 4-H horse program is to develop life skills in youth and skills in horse management.

See 4-H AWARDS, pg 12