Class of 1996 yearbooks now available

Dallas High School Yearbook Advisor William R. Wagner, announces that the 1996 Dallas Yearbooks have been delivered to the school and are available to those students who placed orders earlier this year.

Alumni may pick up their yearbooks from 9 a.m.-3 p.m. daily in the senior high school main office. Receipts are helpful, but not necessary.

A limited number of extra copies are also available on a first-come, first serve basis for those who did not order earlier. These extra copies go quickly and alumni are encouraged to visit the school as soon as possible.

Payment is due in full upon receipt of the book.

The 1997 Yearbook Fundraising Campaign is underway and yearbook staff members are contacting area businesses and organizations for advertisements. The money raised through this campaign remains within the school and directly benefits students by offsetting the yearbook price.

The Dallas High School Yearbook Staff would like to thank those patrons and advertisers who have supported Dallas students in this campaign.

DALLAS HIGH GUIDANCE NOTES

Seniors advised to get college applications in soon as possible

Many seniors have submitted college applications by now. We have been processing these as quickly as possible. Seniors should try to get these in soon so that colleges will have time to review them for acceptance. See your counselor for help or additional information.

Financial Aid 101
Here are six basic steps involved in applying for financial aid:

1. Decide which forms you need to complete. As a minimum, you will have to complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). The 1997-98 FAFSA will be sent by mail to students who have taken college boards by mid-December. The Guidance Office also has these forms.

2. Know your deadlines.
3. Schools may require the Profile Form. If so, these registration materials are available at the Guidance Office or students can register by phone at 1-800-778-6888.

4. Decide if you can get your taxes done in time to complete the FAFSA Form. If not, it is okay to provide estimated figures.

5. Gather together all your financial records (FAFSA and Profile will tell you what you will need) and complete all the necessary forms by the deadlines. Colleges assume that it is your responsibility to make sure you complete all required forms by the deadlines.

6. Attend Financial Aid Night at the High School on Jan. 8, at 7 p.m. Peggy Charnick, Financial Aid Expert from College Misericordia will help you through the financial aid process.

Seniors having trouble with your college essays? Stop in at the Guidance Office for help from the Princeton Review on this important step in applying to a college.

N.E.D.T. test results have been received by the Guidance Office. Students should be expecting a call from their counselor in the near future to go over the results.

Answer to last week's trivia question: Who am I?

There are 68 private colleges and universities in Pennsylvania.

This week we have a little different type of question for you. Despite all the talk about "scholastic achievement" and "reasoning ability", the verbal section of the S.A.T. will test mainly vocabulary skills. If you don't know the words on the test, you won't earn a good score. It's as simple as that. Here are some words that frequently appear on the S.A.T. Test. See how many you know. (The answers are below.)

1. verbosity
2. prodigal
3. impudence
4. ambiguous
5. vacillation
6. extraneous
7. pious
8. omniscient
9. novel
10. provincial
