

DISTRICT COURT BRIEFS

Harveys Lake man charged with striking policeman with car

Harveys Lake resident Nicholas Bocchiaro, 20, was arrested August 5 by PA State Police patrolman James L. Pugh. Bocchiaro allegedly struck officer Damian Derrick Hoover June 12 while Hoover was directing traffic on Rt. 118 with his car. Two witnesses gave statements telling of Bocchiaro's 1989 black Honda striking the officer in the leg. Bocchiaro maintains that he was driving a black Honda on Rt. 118 at the time of the incident, but did not strike the officer. He was charged with three counts of simple assault and harassment. A charge of recklessly endangering another person was dismissed.

D.U.I. CHARGE

Benton resident Theodore K. Derhammer, 38, was arrested Aug. 25 by Lake Twp. patrolman John Young after police were dispatched to the scene of a motor vehicle accident on Lamoraux Rd. After failing sobriety tests, he took a blood test which showed his blood level to be .150. Derhammer's case will be tried in Luzerne County Court. A citation for careless driving was dismissed.

YOUTH TURNS SELF IN ON THEFT CHARGE

Dallas resident Charles Sabulski, 18, who turned himself in on Sept. 18 for the Sept. 6th robbery of the Bittner residence in Dallas Twp. Dallas Twp. patrolman Jeffrey J. Dennis took Sabulski's confession to the robbery. Sabulski said that he and three others, who he named, took part in the robbery. The defendant and the other three took a VCR, a CD player, cordless phone, answering machine and jewelry. Everything was recovered except for a few pieces of jewelry that were sold.

Sabulski was charged with two counts of conspiring theft by unlawful taking, two counts of conspiring to receive stolen property and two counts of conspiring corruption of minors. Also, he was charged with theft by unlawful taking, receiving stolen property and corruption of minors.

THEFT CHARGE

Wilkes-Barre resident James Hawk, 38, who was arrested Nov. 18 by Kingston Twp. patrolman Walter Davis when police were notified that he deceived a couple out of $60. On Nov. 12, Janice Piasta called and told police that Hawk said that he would get her and her husband an air conditioner for $60, but needed the money right then and would bring the appliance right back. The defendant allegedly never brought back the air conditioner or the Piasta's money, they never saw him again. He was charged with theft by deception, false impression and theft by deception, fail to correct.

CHARGE DISMISSED

A charge of receiving stolen property against Harveys Lake resident Jimmie Kreidler Jr., 18, was dismissed Nov. 27. He had been arrested Oct. 28 by Lehman Twp. patrolman John Young after police were made aware that a motorcycle that was reported stolen on Sept. 29 by James Romanchick had been recovered. The motorcycle belonged to Jason Butler.

On Oct. 14 the defendant met with Timothy Teetsel and showed him the bike, telling him that he bought it from someone in the Jamesway parking lot. Kreidler told Teetsel that he could buy it from him for $300.

On the same day, Romanchick and Butler received word that Kreidler had the bike. They went to Kreidler's residence and saw him pushing the bike. After they told him who the motorcycle belonged to, Kreidler gave it back without hesitation.

VEHICLE CHARGES

Tunkhannock resident, Charles Silsby, 46, who was arrested Oct. 6 by Dallas Twp. patrolman Jeffrey J. Dennis after police observed him driving recklessly on Lower Demunds Rd. Dennis stopped Silsby after observing him drive in the left lane and driving 62 mph in a 35 mph zone. Silsby passed a field sobriety test.

As Dennis was calling in Silsby's information, Silsby approached the police car and told him that the car was completely illegal, had no insurance on it, the registration belonged to another vehicle and that he did cover the 6/95 sticker on the license plate with a 1/97 sticker which belongs to another registration.

Silsby was charged with limitations on driving on left side of road, speeding, operating a vehicle without a valid inspection, driving an unregistered vehicle, violation of use of certificate of inspection and failure to display certification of inspection.

A charge for operating vehicle without requested financial responsibility was dismissed.

DRUG CHARGE

Dallas resident Elizabeth A. Evans was arrested Sept. 1 by PA State Police patrolman Gerald Williams after police observed her bringing a controlled substance in the State Correctional Institution at Dallas.

Police discovered the substance at the main gate of the prison where she was asked to empty her change purse. The substance, later identified as cocaine allegedly fell out of her purse and the officer seized it. Evans was interviewed at the scene and admitted to having the substance at the prison, but said it must belong to someone else and it was placed in her change purse without her knowledge.

Evans was charged with contraband/controlled substance and possession of controlled substance. A charge for disorderly conduct was dismissed.
