

Paintings by Linda Ondish are displayed

Paintings by Back Mountain resident Linda Ondish will be on display in the lobby of the Mellon Bank, Main Street, Dallas, through the first week of January.

Ondish works in many of the fine art mediums including watercolor, acrylic, oil, and colored pencil. She strives for realism in her drawings and paintings, and her work is often very detailed. Ondish has won over 100 prizes for her artwork, most of them at the Luzerne County Fall Fair. She also paints in miniature. Ondish is a member and past president of the Cider Painters of America, a miniaturist painting organization. She has also served as a volunteer for Channel 44's Arts and Antiques Auction and at the Luzerne County Fall Fair in the Arts and Crafts Department. Ondish has been involved in various arts and crafts throughout her life, but in the nine years she has painted seriously, she has studied with Sue Hand, Jim Rogowski, and Judy Hatcher.

Ondish and her husband, Arthur, are parents of three grown daughters, and grandparents of four.

In her spare time she enjoys working at home in Kunkle on her ardens and spending time with her various pets. These gardens and pets sometimes appear in her paintings.

The public is invited to view this exhibit of artwork by Linda Ondish during regular banking hours in the lobby of the Mellon Bank, Dallas, through the first week of January.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Phillips celebrate first anniversary

Cindy Phillips, daughter of Anna Mae and the late Frank Czerniakowski, of Shantytown and Robert E. Phillips Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Phillips, Sr., Centermoreland, recently celebrated their first wedding anniversary on November 4, 1996.

The ceremony took place at St. Mark's Church, Inkerman performed by Father A.J. Augustine. It was a double ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother.

The maid of honor was Andrea Volpetti, friend of the bride; bridesmaids were Mary Ann Mudlock, cousin of the bride; Carrie Dubray, and Cathy Steady, friends of the bride.

The best man was Eric Wright, friend of the groom. Ushers were Roger Bellas, cousin of the groom; Charles Story and Scott Wright, friends of the groom.

The Scripture Readings were by Mary Ann Mudlock, cousin of the bride and Charles Story, friend of the groom.

Offeratory gifts were presented by Lauren, Ronald and Frank Czerniakowski, niece and nephews of the bride and Amanda and Nicole Arrowood, nieces of the groom.

An evening cocktail and dinner reception hosted by the mother of the bride was held at the Carriage Stop Inn, Wilkes-Barre.

The rehearsal dinner hosted by the parents of the groom for the bridal party, family and out of town guests was held at the Centermoreland United Methodist Church Hall.

A bridal shower hosted by the mothers of the bride and groom and bridesmaids was held at the American Leigon Post 590, Hudson.

The couple honeymooned in Jamaica and now reside in Wilkes-Barre.

The bride is a graduate of Pittston Area High School and the University of Vermont, Burlington, with a bachelor of science degree in business management and consumer studies. She is employed by C-TEC, Dallas.

The groom is a graduate of Tunkhannock High School, and is employed at Offset Paperback Manufacturers, Dallas.
