

Santa letters

Christmas day is time for fun
Time of joy for everyone
Presents underneath the tree Wishing they were all for me Christmas tree is shining bright Giving off a glorious light
When I look under the tree Presents are all I see Presents, presents everywhere
The wrapping is bad, but I don't care Christmas this year was a fun
time of joy for everyone

Christmas Day
Christmas, Christmas it is here,
its my favorite time of year.
Around the tree
you will see
Some presents that are wrapped for me.
As I unwrap my eyes filled with joy
I open a box that has a toy.
Its my favorite toy of the bunch but the others will not be piled in bunch

Dear Santa,
This year I've been good. In school I'm doing well. So, here's a list of a few things I would like. A new jacket, rollerblades, a stuffed teddy bear, new boots and gloves. But most of all I would like snow. We haven't really got any. All we got is flurries. So try to make it snow.
It wouldn't be Christmas without it.
Thank you
Halli Williams

Christmas Eve
5 little stockings hanging in a row,
What will Santa put in them
I don't know.
One little Christmas tree standing over there,
What gift will he bring,
I don't care.
Santa is watching every boy and girl,
To see if the children are good or bad.
I can't wait till tonight.

Christmas Christmas is filled with love and
joy,
And all sorts of things,
Snow is falling on the ground,
All the family gathers round, Presents on the door steps sent from far away,
Ornaments on the tree hanging
to this day,
Lights hanging from the tree,
Looking like little white stars,
There is no comparison,
To the holiday of Christmas
By: Jessica Roberts

Christmas Day
Santa comes on Christmas Eve, when children are asleep. I don't know he does it, but never makes a peep. I never saw a reindeer or a tiny little sleigh but somehow I believe in him when I open my presents on Christmas Day. I heard he's fat and jolly and his cheeks are rosy red, his pants size 150 and his pants the size of the sleigh, he ate my home-baked cookies and sometimes I leave the reindeer a present for Christmas Day.
