It was almost Christmas and Santa and his elves were packing the bag into the sled. For some reason the reindeer darted off. And Sana called for the elves to get them back. The elves went, and when they returned it was almost eleven O'clock. They would have to get to every boys' and girls' house in one hour. That seemed almost impossible, but they were determined to do so. So they went off. In seconds they finished North and South America and in minutes they finished the whole world. It was a mirical

Santa is Coming
He is going every where
He looks at his list
He checks it twice
To see who has been naughty or nice
So be good
Because if you hear sleighbells
Santa is coming to you!

DALLAS HIGH GUIDANCE NOTES

Plan to attend Financial Aid Night

January 8th is a big night for Dallas seniors and their parents. Financial Aid Night will be held at 7 p.m. at the high school. Peggy Charnick, Financial Aid Representative from College Misericordia, will be the featured speaker and will take parents through the process of filing for financial aid. Parents who have not yet received the FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) form by mail, should call 675-5201, Ext. 218, and we will be happy to provide a form to you. All federal and state financial aid cannot be processed without this form. Please plan on attending Financial Aid Night. It will go a long way towards solving the maze that is the financial aid process.

We have had a great response to our Practice S.A.T. test to be given on Sat., Jan. 18 at 10 a.m. and sponsored by Princeton Review, the leader in S.A.T. preparation nationwide. The test will be an actual S.A.T. that will be scored and returned to students four days later during the Flex period. Also, all students who take the test will participate in a seminar held by Princeton Review on the 22nd that will give a detailed analysis of a student's performance, test taking tips, and information about the college admission process. All this for $6. The test is open to all high school students and is highly recommended for the college-bound student in any grade simply because it will not mar a permanent record if a student scores poorly. Students who do not attend Dallas can participate by contacting their guidance counselor or by calling 674-7215. Remember, the registration deadline is Monday, Jan. 13. There are no late or walk-in registrations. We hope area students will take advantage of this great service!

Some students have not received their P.S.A.T. or N.E.D.T. test results. Please stop by the Guidance Office at your convenience to find out how you did. The Guidance Office has free S.A.T. word lists available for interested students. These are words that are often used on the S.A.T. test. If students are interested, they should stop by and ask for one.

Happy Holidays to all from the Dallas High School Guidance Office!

Answer to last week's trivia question: Who am I?

The Missionary Institute of the Evangelical Lutheran Church merged with the Susquehanna Female College in 1873 to form what is known today as the Susquehanna University.

This week's trivia question: Who am I?

I opened in 1839 in Columbia County as an "academy to teach youth the elements of classical education." Today, I boast an enrollment of 7,500 and am a member of Pennsylvania's 14 state-owned universities. Who am I? (See next week's column for the answer.)

Outstanding students cited

Recently an assembly was held at the Dallas Middle School to honor the outstanding academic students for the first marking period. Anthony Martinelli, principal, announced that 20 students had earned award certificates for having achieved Honors With Distinction. To be eligible for honors with Distinction a student must have a 3.8 to 4.0 average with no D or F grades. Eighth grade winners were Leanne Piasta, Melonie Sappe, and Amanda Young. Seventh grade was represented by Herbert Bressler, Michael Choe, Brian Downey, Elizabeth Eby, Laura Fauerbach, Helene Jayne, Jeffrey Jumper, Erica Koehl, Ryan Morgan, Philip Pack, Brandon Pall and Laura Vodzak. Sixth grade students were Christian Cobleigh, Gabrielle Huh, Samantha Lloyd, Amy Pack and Chen Yang.
