Hospice St. John honors volunteers

Hospice Saint John took time out last week to celebrate and affirm the contributions of its many volunteers. The volunteers were feted at a special breakfast gathering attended by staff, including Carolee Holmes, Wilkes-Barre Area Director.

Holmes thanked the volunteers on behalf of the many terminally ill patients and family members cared for during the past year. The breakfast was held at the Mark II Restaurant, Kidder Street, Wilkes-Barre.

Hospice Saint John's skilled volunteers, through Hospice Saint John offices serving the Greater

Wilkes-Barre, Scranton, and Hazleton areas, provide many vital services including: patient care, feeding, transportation and emotional support.

Hospice Saint John, a program of Lutheran Welfare Service of Northeastern Pennsylvania, is the oldest operating hospice in Northeastern Pennsylvania and for 17 years has been serving the needs of the terminally ill and their families. Lutheran Welfare Service is a non-profit social ministry organization of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

For more information about volunteer opportunities, call 823-2114.

BACK MOUNTAIN BRIEFS

VNA hospice seeks volunteers

Hospice Care of VNA is seeking volunteers to join its hospice team, which offers supportive medical, social, spiritual and volunteer service to terminally ill patients and their families.

Hospice volunteers can have direct patient and family involvement, work at the Inpatient Unit at the Heritage House or provide clerical and office assistance.

A January volunteer training class is now being organized. If you are interested in becoming a hospice volunteer or would like more information, please contact Barbara Wilson, volunteer coordinator, at 819-0866.

Business group will meet Jan. 9

The January meeting of the Back Mountain Business and Professional Association will be held Jan. 9 at 11:45 a.m. at Merrick Hall on the campus of College Misericordia.

Lunch will be served at the cost of $6 per person. The agenda for this meeting will be a round table discussion on the direction of the BMBPA for 1997. We will also vote on the budget for 1997 and develop ideas for the upcoming year.

Make your reservation for the meeting no later than Jan. 7 by calling 675-9380.

Music Box auditions for Annie

The Music Box Players will audition for their first production of the 1997 season: Annie, on Jan. 4, at 12:30 p.m. for little girls, ages 6 to 13. Call backs for little girls are scheduled for Jan. 6, at 7 p.m. Girls unable to attend on Jan. 4 may audition on Jan. 6. Adult auditions will be held Jan. 8 at 7:30 p.m. All auditions are held at the Music Box Dinner Playhouse, 196 Hughes St., Swyersville.

Children and adults who wish to audition are asked by Director/choreographer, Kevin Costley, to come prepared to sing a song of his/her choice (an accompanist will be provided), and to dance a short routine, and read from the script.

All roles are open and include the title role, several orphans (all girls), Daddy Warbucks, Miss Hannigan (head of the orphanage); Grace Farrell (Daddy Warbucks's secretary) and Rooster and Lily (accomplices in crime with Miss Hannigan) and President Franklin Roosevelt.

Rehearsals begin Jan. 10, and will be held evenings and on weekends. Performance dates for Annie are: Feb. 7-9, 13-16; 20-23; 27-28 and Mar. 1.

For further information or to make an audition appointment call 283-2195 or 1-800-698-PLAY

Q. What exercise is best for skiers?

A: Any exercise that requires balance is good. Leg strength is important, but don't forget the upper body. Cross Country machines and roller-blading are the best single exercises.
