Misericordia staff members help needy

The Community Life Center of the Staff Council at College Misericordia recently sponsored two holiday collections, asking members of the College community for donations to help local agencies that help needy families

The Thanksgiving event was a cereal collection for the food bank of the Christian Service Center in Plymouth, a non-denominational agency. More than 150 boxes of cereal were donated by members of the College community. Cereal had been suggested by the coordinator of the food bank, who said families with children always need cereal, and there is never enough to meet the demand.

The Christmas event is a collection of funds for the Adopt-A-Family program, a project of the Catherine McAuley Center. The committee chose to sponsor a family of six. With the proceeds of the collection, members of the group will shop for gifts, wrap them and deliver them to the Catherine McAuley House.
