Volleyball match will fund memorial

On January 24 at 7:00 p.m., The Mountaineer, Dallas Senior High School's newspaper, will sponsor the Second Annual Mountaineer Charity Volleyball Game. The event will take place in the high school gymnasium. The Dallas Faculty will face off against the 98.5 WKRZ DJ's in a 5-match game.

The game was begun to raise money to buy new equipment for the newspaper club. But this year, the staff of The Mountaineer would like to use the proceeds to set up a memorial fund in honor of Seth Linsinbigler. Seth, a freshman at Dallas High School, recently died from a cancerous brain tumor. The memorial fund will be used to present an award to one of Seth's classmates. The student must exemplify community service, as Seth did.

The staff of The Mountaineer would greatly appreciate your attendance of this event. Admission is $2.00 at the door.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

GIRLS SWIMMING Dallas 149, Nanticoke 32

The Lady Mounts swept the meet with first place victories in every event to pull the plug on Nanticoke 149-32 Jan. 15. Jacey Peterson split the water with first place finishes in the 50 freestyle and 500 freestyle while Michelle Molesky took first in the 100 fly and 100 backstroke. Stephanie Potisek had the composure on the board to take a first in the diving competition.

Dallas 110, Pittston 74

Dallas boosted their conference record to an impressive 5-2 with a 110-74 victory over Pittston Jan. 17. Alyssa Harris placed first in the 50 and 100 freestyle events while Shannon Gaffney went the distance with a first in the 500 freestyle.

BOYS SWIMMING

Dallas 105, Berwick 56

Matt Schweitzer, Tim Herbert and Robbie Neil each were fourtime winners as Dallas drowned Berwick 105-56 Jan. 16 in Berwick. Schweitzer was first in two individual events, the 50 and 100 freestyle while Herbert had the endurance to take the 500 freestyle and 200 ind. medly. Neil placed in the 100 butterfly and 100 backstoke.

Dallas 50, Bishop Hoban 21

Dallas grappler Paul Pitcavage (130) pinned his opponent in a scorching 36 seconds as Dallas flattened Hoban 50-21 Jan. 15 in the Valley. The Mounts also had falls by Dave Spurlin (119), Ken Hoover (135), Jamie Raub (152) and Matt Gingo (160). Bill Suda registered a technical fall at 145.

Hazleton took three in a row from the Knigths at 119, 125 and 130 before Lehman muscled out a few of their own and downed the Cougars 35-17 Jan. 15. A stubborn Hazleton squad kept fighting for the points until Joe Halowich (145) scored an overtime decision to give the Knights the boost they needed to take a 23-9 lead with just five matches remaining. The upper weights then sealed the win with a pin by Ned Walsh (160) and decisions by Pat Rogowski (189) and Mike Woronko

State will stock trout in winter

Not rain, nor snow nor bitter wind shall keep diehard anglers from making their winter rounds. The PA Fish and Boat Commission will be making its rounds as well, delivering more than 85,000 adult trout as part of the agency's Late Winter Stocking Program.

The Late Winter Stockings run through January and February in 52 lakes and two rivers across 35 different counties. Waters included in the program are also open for an additional month of trout fishing. Trout angling is permitted in March on these waters while most other troutstocked waters close to fishing at the end of February in preparation for the traditional Opening Day of the season.

All fish harvested from the affected waters are subject to Extend Trout Season rules. Trout must be a minimum of seven inches in length and no more than three per day may be taken. Licensed anglers who wish to fish for trout must also display a valid Trout/Salmon stamp attached to their license on an outside gar-

Late Winter Stockings in Luzerne County are at Irena Lake, and Moon Lake the week of Feb. 3.
