was much the same, with the Bulls scoring at will. Chris Arnaud, Lloyd Droppers and Paul Dougal were the key Bull players in the second quarter. The Bulls outscored the Hornets 14-4 to take a 27-11 halftime lead. The Hornets Pat Barnard caught fire in the third period, but the Bulls countered with a fine scoring attack from Danny Laurenzi. The fourth quarter was much the same for the Bulls. The Bulls' offense was led by Paul Dougal with a game high 27 points, followed by Danny Laurenzi with 15 points and Bobby Gebhardt with 8 points. The Hornets' offense was led by Pat Barnard with 16 points, followed by John Simonitis with 9 points. The Bulls move into the semi-finals against the Celtics this Saturday.

CELTICS 57 - 'BLAZERS 52

In the final game of the afternoon the Celtics defeated the Trailblazers 57-52. The Celtics built a 17-12 lead after the first quarter on the inside shooting of Matt Eyt, scoring 10 of his game high 24 points. The Celtics continued their scoring attack in the second quarter by outscoring the Trailblazers 14-8, to take a 31-20 halftime lead. The Trailblazers, behind the torrid three-point shooting of Blake Saba, narrowed the Celtic lead 42-35 at quarters end. The Trailblazers sensing an upset, continued their attack in the fourth quarter, but were plagued with costly turnovers. A fine defensive effort by the whole Celtic team sealed the win. The Celtics' offense was led by Matt Eyt with a game high 24 points followed by Jared Karalunas with 19 points. The Trailblazers' offense was led by Blake Saba and John Nackley each chipping in with 14 points, followed by Bruce Hubbard with 7 points.

Second round playoffs will resume this Saturday, March 1 with the Heat vs Sixers at 3:00 and the Celtics vs. Bulls at 4:00.
