Erin Stair appointed to West Point military academy

Erin Stair, a senior student at Bishop O'Reilly High School in Kingston, has received an appointment to the United States Military Academy at West Point. In addition to academic pursuits, she will also play soccer for the "Lady Knights" in the Academy's Division I Patriot League.

The daughter of Dr. and Maureen Stair of Trucksville, Erin is one of 1,200 students (a figure which includes 150 women) selected annually from a total of 13,000 applicants. The rigid screening process includes a physical fitness test, a complete medical examination and interviews with senators and local congressmen. Erin received nominations, both from Congressman

Paul Kanjorski and Senator Rick Santorum.

Academically, Erin is presently first in her class and serves as president of the Student Council. In addition, she has earned varsity letters in field hockey, cross country and soccer. Besides the O'Reilly soccer team, she is also a member of the Back Mountain Dragons soccer team which competes in the Philadelphia based premier League and is coached by Paul Callahan. A three-time participant in the Keystone Games, Erin works as a soccer referee, a lifeguard and volunteers with youth soccer programs. Her other interests include the violin and singing in Bishop O'Reilly's chamber choir and folk group.

Dallas Middle science classes explore biomes

Recently Mrs. Joan Rakowski's Dallas Middle School science classes held a biome contest. A biome is a geographical area that shares the same type of weather conditions. There were land and water biomes entered into the contest. The water biome winner was Lindsay Kelly. Lindsay featured a salt water biome actually brought from the Atlantic off the coast of Massachusetts. The land biome winners were: desert, Jonathan Nutche; tropical rain forest, Chris Carr; temperate deciduous forest, Julena Haines; grasslands, Megan Riley; taiga, Michael Rakowski; tundra, Paul Douglas. The overall winner was Megan Riley. The winners received award certificates and a free science work pass. Pictured, from left, are Jonathan Nutche, Julena Haines, Chris Carr, Megan Riley, Mike Rakowski, Paul Douglas and Lindsay Kelly.

Mercy Center Preschool taking '97-98 registrations

Mercy Center Preschool, located on the grounds of College Misericordia in Dallas, is offering an open house and registration for the 1997-98 term on March 9, from 2 to 4 p.m., according to Sister Stella Maris Ozimkowski, RSM, administrator. The pre-kindergarten school is a fully-accredited, private, educational facility operated by the Sisters of Mercy, Regional Community of Dallas.
