Dallas Fire & Ambulance 1997 officers

Dallas Fire & Ambulance Inc. recently installed their officers for the 1997 year at their annual installation/dinner dance Feb. 15. The event was held at the "Apple Tree Terrace" at Newberry Estates in Dallas.

This year's event featured 20 year service awards to five members. They are Brett Slocum, Francis Barry Jr., John Wega, Bill Shaffer and Chris Purchell. In addition, the organization made a special presentation to its five honorary members for their past and present contributions of time and talents to the organization. The five honorary members are: Atty. Tom Brennan, Drew Fitch, David Fitch, Ronald Fitch and Leon Brokenshire.

Lambert named Employee of Quarter

At a recent presentation, Bindery Department employee, Holly Lambert, was recognized as Offset Paperback's Employee of the Quarter for the fourth quarter of 1996. Holly began her career at Offset Paperback in 1984 in the Order Fulfillment Department and later transferred to the Bindery Department. Holly is described by her co-workers and supervisors as very conscientious, cooperative and dependable. In addition, Holly was recognized for her acute attention to quality and the number of various jobs she has learned in the department.

As Employee of the Quarter, Holly received the Employee of the Quarter Certificate, preferred parking, a gift certificate for dinner for two and a $200 savings bond.
