Lake-Lehman students place in competition

DALLAS MIDDLE SCHOOL NEWS

JOB FOR STUDENTS

Any student who is 14 years old or older may pick up an application for a job or volunteer work application (at the Wilkes-Barre General Hospital) in the DMS Guidance office.

JOE FRITZ

SHAKESPEARE AT DHS

The DMS 8th graders left the Middle School and went to the Dallas Senior High to see, "Much Ado About Nothing". The DHS drama club did a great job at the dress rehearsal. Brook Kryston said, "The scenery was great, and the acting was OK, but I especially liked the parts when the people got kicked around."

DANCE FULL OF REWARDS

The DMS had a dance thanks to the students selling over $31,000 worth of magazines.

SPRING DANCE

The DMS held a spring dance this last Friday (4/11/97).

BINGO

The DMS Parent/Student Group is hosting bingo at the Meadows Nursing Home on April 19 and May 3. The DMS is also looking for new or almost new stuffed animals for prizes at bingo.

LJ learns the 'Power of Purchase'

A new collection campaign is underway at Lehman Jackson Elementary. The PTA organization is now participating in the "Power of Purchase Program" sponsored by Eastman Kodak Company, Hershey Foods Corporation and Hefty Products.

Through this program the PTA will have the opportunity to obtain educational and recreational equipment with the help of parents and students saving UPC codes from more than 1,700 name brand products. Brands eligible are Hersheys products, Kodak products, Reese's, KitKat and all Hefty products. Parents are asked to start saving now and to continue saving through the summer for the next year.

PTA chairperson Mary Jo Nelson will be heading this committee and can be contacted at 696-4656.

This program will be in addition to the PTA's "Campbell's Labels for Education", Hill's Receipt Collection and General Mills "Box Tops for Education" programs. All of these labels can be dropped off in the appropriate drop-off box in the lobby of the Elementary school.

Art Scholarship for students

Students from across Northeastern Pennsylvania are invited to apply for a Dr. Millie S. Lawson Memorial Summer Art Scholarship. The scholarship program is open to any ninth, tenth, or eleventh grade student who is interested in pursuing a career in the visual arts.

Three recipients of the scholarship will be chosen and will receive the opportunity to enroll in up to six summer art courses at Sue Hand's Imagery, 35 Main Street, Dallas during June, July and August 1977. In addition, several one-hour private consultations concerning career studies and portfolio preparation will be provided.

Interested students may apply in person at Sue Hand's Imagery on or before May 1. Students must submit a 1-2 page narrative (typed and double-spaced) which includes information concerning the following questions: What has been your past art experience? Why would you benefit from this Scholarship program? What are your future plans concerning the world of art? Why would you be an asset to the Dr. Millie S. Lawson Memorial Scholarship program? as well as any other pertinent information and 4-12 examples of the student's best art work in any medium which will be reviewed at a short, informal, personal interview.

Appointments may be made by calling 717 675-5094. Three winners will be notified by May 15. Scholarships will be awarded by out-of-the-area artist/educator judges.

The Scholarship is in memory of the late Dr. Millie S. Lawson who was a tremendous influence in the lives of many individuals locally. Because of Dr. Lawson, there have been many advancements in the appreciation of the literary, the performing and the visual arts in Northeastern Pennsylvania.

Pre-school programs for 4 year olds at Lake-Lehman

Charles James and Robert Kunkle, Elementary Principals for the Lake-Lehman School District, announce the Preschool Program for parents and preschool (4-year-old) children for the 1997-98 school year.

The fifth and final instalment of Lake-Lehman's Early Childhood/Preschool Program is scheduled for April 22, 23 and 24, and will feature "Bus Safety and Orientation - Children will ride a bus."

Bus safety and orientation will be discussed with parents. In addition, a principal will be available to respond to parent's questions concerning kindergarten. Children will work with kindergarten teachers on drawings and crafts. During this session, the children will experience riding a bus through the local community.

The schedule for this preschool presentation is as follows:

April 22, Ross, 10 a.m.-11:30 a.m.; April 23, Lake-Noxen, 9 a.m.-10:30 a.m.; April 24, Lehman-Jackson, 9 a.m.-10:30 a.m. Topic: Bus Safety and Kindergarten Orientation.

The activities for children during these programs will include: a play-game time; a story time; an orientation to the school building and special purpose rooms, i.e. library, cafeteria, gym, health room; make and take/arts and crafts; safety in the home and neighborhood, and an orientation to busing. This program, activities for children and presentations to parents, has been highly successful in the previous 10 years.

The program recognizes the importance of the parent-school relationship and the powerful impact it has on the early success and achievement of our children. Furthermore, this program recognizes the importance of the parent as the child's first teacher.

Please register for the fifth presentation by calling the neighboring elementary school office and letting us know how many adults and children will be attending. Telephone numbers are as follows:

Ross Elementary School, 477-5050 or 256-7897; Lake-Noxen Elementary School, 639-1129; Lehman-Jackson Elementary School, 675-2165.

This program is intended for four-year-olds only. It is kindly requested that you not bring younger brothers and sisters unless there is no alternative.

Dallas Middle students study ancient cultures

Recently Dallas Middle School students, in Mr. William Roberts' social studies classes, concluded their study of ancient near eastern cultures by producing projects that reflected the lifestyle of a particular society. The activities included reports on historical figures, maps showing minerals, industry, and major geographic features; models and drawings which dealt with architecture, clothing, jewelry, transportation and technology of the various cultures studied. Scholarship offered for performing arts student Gina Major Ackerman, owner and director of Major Performing Arts Centers in Pittston and Trucksville, is pleased to offer the Sixth Annual Major Performing Arts Center College Scholarship Award. Any graduating high school senior going on to study in a full four year degree performing arts college program is eligible.

Not only are academics taken into consideration, but also awards and accomplishments in the performing arts field, community service, and need for financial assistance. Applicants should send a letter to apply, plus details on the above requirements in either resume or letter form. Two letters of reference from teachers, principals, etc. should be sent as well. Send application to Gina Major Ackerman, 85 Huntsville Rd., Dallas, Pa 18612, postmarked by April 30.

Major Performing Arts Center raises the monies for this annual scholarship through profits on its annual June production, this year slated for June 28 and 29 at the Darte Center, Wilkes University.
