

BRIDGE TO THE FUTURE

Girl Scouts in Neighborhood 25 of the Penns Wood Council of the Girl Scouts of America held a bridging ceremony recently. They also took time to honor Ellie Rodda, Shavertown, who is retiring after 13 years with the Scouts, serving as public relations coordinator and territorial manager for Neighborhood 25, which is comprised of 31 troops and 404 girls in the BackMountain.

At left, Moms took photos of their girls. Ellie Rodda looked on as Jamie Kozemko read a tribute (lower left). A Scout crossed the symbolic bridge to the next level of Girl Scouting as troop leader Deb Serfass and Nicole Appel looked on (below, center), and Lee Ricetta, Ali Dervia and Alex Napierkowski looked on intently (lower right).

Hilstolsky has been a resident of the township for 20 years and has served on the planning commission for the past three. He would like to see the supervisors working together for the community. "There seems to be some conflict on the current board. Supervisors should work for the people in the township, that's what they're elected for," he said.

Incumbent Robert Redmond, Republican, is also running for re-election. The Post was unable to reach him for this article, but expects to speak with him for the May 7 issue.
