UM Women to sponsor luncheon

The United Methodist Women of the Trucksville United Methodist Church will serve an Election Day Luncheon, May 20, in the Fellowship Hall of the Educational Building of the Trucksville United Methodist Church. Serving will begin at noon and the menu will include homemade vegetable soup, beef and vegetarian. Also on the menu will be hot dogs, hamburgers, cheeseburgers, baked beans, potato salad, homemade cake and homemade rice pudding. There will be a bake sale table which will offer home baked goods and candy for sale.

The soup will be available for takeout, orders may be placed by calling the church office 696-3897 between 9 a.m. and 2 p.m.

Due to construction on Church Road access to the Trucksville United Methodist Church is via Hillside Road.

All proceeds earned from this luncheon will be used in the many mission projects of the United Methodist Women, local, national and global.

Conyngham marks 50 years with family business

April 3, 1997, was a special day for George Guthrie Conyngham, Trucksville, president and CEO of Eastern Pennsylvania Supply Company. It was the 50th anniversary of his initial employment at the family firm on April 3. A group of senior EPSCO/C.B. SCOTT executives and staff members had assembled at the Lobster Trap to mark the anniversary.

During World War II, Mr. Conyngham served in the Pacific with the 4th Marine Division. After the war ended, he remained in the Pacific for an additional year of service. Following graduation from Yale University, he returned to the Wyoming Valley and began working in the warehouse of the company, founded by his father, William H. Conyngham, in 1889. He moved up through the ranks, serving in customer service, sales, and as purchasing agent for a number of years under the administration of John M. Miles, the fourth chief executive of the firm.

Recalled to service during the Korean Conflict, he served as a lieutenant in Fox Company, 2nd Battalion, 5th Marines, where he replaced his brother, Lt. John (Jack) Conyngham, who was transferred to Battalion Staff. John Conyngham is currently vice-president at EPSCO.

Following the Korean Conflict, Guthrie Conyngham returned to Eastern Penn Supply. He was elected president and chief executive officer in November, 1961.

An active participant in a wide range of community activities, and a firm believer in the involvement of business leadership in community affairs, Mr. Conyngham helped to organize a Marine Reserve Unit in the area; served as chairman of the last independent Wyoming Valley Red Cross Campaign and chaired the first United Fund Campaign in 1956. More recently he helped to bring the area together in a successful effort to protect the future of the Tobyhanna Army Depot in Monroe County.

Among his trade affiliations are service as past president of the Middle Atlantic Wholesalers Association, and for many years as vice-president of the National Organization, American Supply Association. He has been actively associated with the Pennsylvania Economy League, Children's Service Center and the Wilkes-Barre Family YMCA.

Eastern Pennsylvania Supply Company is celebrating its 108th year. In addition to the firm's headquarters, offices, showrooms and warehouses on Scott Street in Wilkes-Barre, branches are located in Allentown, Athens,

George Guthrie Conyngham

Stroudsburg, and Throop. On August 14, 1996, the firm celebrated the opening in Berwick of its sixth location. A sister company, C.B. Scott, has its main office, showrooms, and warehouse in Scranton, with branch locations on Coal Street in Wilkes-Barre and White Mills, PA.
