Post Office lends hand to hungry

Recently the postal workers invited Back Mountain residents to put donations of food at their mail boxes and promised to deliver them to the nearest food bank. How they kept their promise and how generous were our Back Mountain neighbors! After volunteers at Trucksville United Methodist Church unpacked, sorted and repacked the food, nearly 200 boxes of groceries were available to restock the shelves of the Back Mountain Food Bank. Your Food Bank thanks you! Pictured are three volunteers who help make up orders for those in need. Left to right: Wally Gosart, Bill Palmer and Bill Ostrum.
